Chairman's Statement

ROBUST FOUNDATION AND EXPLORATION OF NEW OPPORTUNITIES TOWARDS A DIGITAL INTELLIGENCE FUTURE

In 2025, the world pursued a new balance amid reforms. International collaboration had been exploring optimal pathways in efficiency and security, while the wave of technological innovation had been reshaping industries around the world. Cutting-edge technologies such as AI had not only spurred robust new demand in data centers, autonomous driving, and bionic robots, but had also become deeply embedded in business operations. Through intelligent decision-making and process reengineering, these technologies were driving a leap in efficiency across the entire industrial chain.

Amid this wave of momentum, Sanhua rang the gong at the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, successfully listing on the international capital market. This marks Sanhua's official entry into a new era driven by its "A+H" dual-platform strategy. This achievement not only broadens the Company's financing channels, but also marks as a milestone in Sanhua's pursuit of its strategic goals to become "more global, more technologically advanced, and more leading", thereby opening up new opportunities for integrating global resources and deepening technological innovation.

Sound Operations and Strong Performance in Both Revenue and Profit

Adhering to the business strategy of "focusing on excellence and innovating for success", the Company achieved operating revenue of RMB31,011.7 million in 2025, representing a year-over-year increase of 11.0%, reflecting rapid growth in business scale; profit attributable to owners of the Company was RMB4,062.9 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 31.1%, demonstrating significant operational and management effectiveness. These achievements would not have been possible without the hard work of every Sanhua employee and the trust of global customers. The Company has established a global industrial footprint, with 6 R&D centers and 8 major production bases worldwide, as well as sales network across domestic and key markets in the Asia-Pacific, Europe, and North America, ensuring rapid and stable product delivery through a comprehensive system. Leveraging its technical expertise and track record in refrigeration and air-conditioning product components and automotive thermal management system components, the Company is forging a third growth curve by actively expanding into fields such as bionic robot electromechanical actuators. Additionally, energy storage thermal management, data centers, and sensors are emerging as new growth drivers within the Company's business portfolio.

Building a Moat through Innovation-Driven and Technology-Led Approaches

The depth of technology determines the height of a company. Continuous R&D and innovation are the driving force behind the Company's progress and the source of its enhanced competitiveness. In 2025, the Company continued to deepen its expertise in the core business, while focusing on emerging business areas. It promoted the optimization of talent structure toward higher levels and actively led and participated in the formulation of industry standards, thereby consolidating its leading position in the global climate intelligent control sector.

Chairman's Statement

Fulfilling Commitment to Sustainable Development through Green Empowerment

A company's enduring success stems from its responsibility toward the environment and society. Upholding the mission and vision of "developing an intelligent, low-carbon economy and fostering a green, high-quality environment", the Company is committed to rapidly advancing the energy efficiency and low-carbon features of products to enhance market competitiveness, while contributing to global carbon neutrality goals. In 2025, the Company achieved breakthroughs in its domestic and international ESG ratings: a leap to BBB in the MSCI ESG rating, a Bronze rating in the EcoVadis sustainable development rating, and an upgrade to A in the Wind ESG rating. These achievements have established a reputation for Sanhua as a stable and responsible player in global capital market.

Unleashing New Momentum of Talent and Digital Intelligence through Organizational Transformation

Global talent is essential for global enterprises. In 2025, the Company continued to build a global talent development system and cultivate a "high-performing, international talent pool" to support the success of its global operations. 2025 also marked Sanhua's "dawn of AI application". The Company comprehensively advanced in-depth integration of AI with R&D, manufacturing, management, and other operational scenarios, with the goal of becoming an industry benchmark for intelligent transformation. At the same time, we actively adopted AI technologies to empower all aspects of operations, develop proprietary "digital assistants", and propelled Sanhua's digital transformation onto the fast track of development.

LOOKING AHEAD: UPHOLDING FOUNDATIONS AND PURSUING INNOVATION WITH STEADY PROGRESS TOWARDS LONG-TERM SUCCESS

Consolidating Foundations and Exploring New Opportunities to Cultivate New Drivers

In the face of a complex and ever-changing macroeconomic environment, the Company will remain focused on its core business, adhere to the principle of seeking progress amid stability, and advance high-quality development. In strategic emerging sectors such as bionic robots, energy storage thermal management, data centers, and sensors, we will increase the allocation of R&D resources, accelerate product iteration and market expansion, and cultivate new growth drivers.

Striving for Global Excellence by Enhancing Operational Efficiency

The Company will optimize its global manufacturing and logistics layout, driving overseas bases to evolve from "capacity deployment" to "operational excellence", thereby making them a solid component of the Company's overall competitiveness.

Chairman's Statement

Digital Intelligence for the Future by Building a New Talent Ecosystem

An enterprise is a tree, and talent is its roots; the deeper the roots, the more flourishing the tree. The Company remains steadfast in its talent philosophy, and views digital talent as the core of transformation. We will build growth platforms and stimulate the internal vitality for the organization's continuous evolution through practical projects and refined mechanisms.

Looking ahead, Sanhua firmly believes in the economic and industrial trends toward low-carbon and intelligent development. Taking the Hong Kong IPO as an opportunity, the Company will further focus on intelligent, green, and efficient development, concentrate on its core business areas, strengthen technological innovation and product development, accelerate digital transformation, and speed up integration into global industrial and value chains. Guided by the core value of "creating value for customers", we remain steadfastly customer-oriented, and reward customers with superior products and services; guided by the core value of "upholding foundations and pursuing innovation", we stay true to our original intention, striving to do our best and achieving excellence; guided by the core value of "striving with a sense of responsibility and sharing success through diversity", we share the fruits of our development with investors and employees to make value creation simpler.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to every customer for your continued trust and support. It is your choice that keeps the Company moving forward.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to every employee for your hard work and wisdom. It is your dedication that has turned our vision into reality.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to every Shareholder for your foresight and support. It is your partnership that has kept the Company steadfast through times of change.

I am grateful for your companionship as we embark on the new journey together.

Management Discussion and Analysis

I. MAIN BUSINESSES OF THE COMPANY DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

Main Businesses

Adhering to the development strategy of “focusing on excellence and innovating for success”, the Company has been dedicated to the R&D, promotion and adoption of thermal management technology, providing customers across the globe with energy-efficient solutions through its industry-leading products of high quality. Focusing on the R&D and application of heat pump technology and thermal management systems, the Company has been committed to developing environmental thermal management solutions that enable efficient heat exchange and intelligent temperature control. The Company has established a business that spans two major sectors: refrigeration and air-conditioning product components and automotive components. Leveraging its extensive technological expertise and innovation in R&D, the Company is broadening its business boundaries into emerging fields, such as bionic robot electromechanical actuators.

1. Refrigeration and air-conditioning product components business

The Company mainly engages in the development and application of control components, subsystems and technology solutions, which empower energy-efficient heating, ventilation and air-conditioning systems for buildings and thermal management systems for household appliances. The Company is a key supplier of refrigeration and air-conditioning control components, which span valves, heat exchangers, pumps, controllers and sensors, among others, serving the global market for residential and commercial air-conditioning, commercial and industrial refrigeration and small household appliances, among others. The Company’s key products in this business sector comprise a variety of valve products, including electronic expansion valves, four-way reversing valves, service valves, solenoid valves and ball valves. The Company also offers heat exchanger products, specifically micro-channel heat exchangers, pump products such as Omega pumps, and controller products. Such products are widely utilized in fields including air conditioners, refrigerators, industrial refrigeration, cold-chain transport, heat pump heating and washing machines.

2. Automotive components business

As a key player and pioneer in the NEV thermal management market, the Company has consistently led industry innovation and development through forward-looking strategic deployment, which establishes the Company as a leading supplier of thermal management system components in the global market. The Company specializes in offering comprehensive and reliable thermal management and control solutions for NEVs, and continuously providing energy-efficient, high-performance products for traditional fuel vehicles.

The Company actively invests in R&D for key technologies, covering strategic products such as electronic expansion valves, electronic water pumps, electronic water valves, brazed plate heat exchangers, and integrated modules, among others. These solutions comprehensively address diverse application scenarios including cabinet thermal management, battery thermal management and electrical/control system thermal management, enabling precise control and efficient synergies in overall vehicle thermal management. Currently, multiple products of the Company have entered the supply chains of most leading NEV manufacturers for mass production, demonstrating strong market competitiveness and customer recognition. With respect to manufacturing and technological innovation, the Company maintains a leading position within the industry. Continuous investment in development resources ensures a cycle of mass production, design, and conception of core product technologies of the Company.

Management Discussion and Analysis

II. PARTICULARS OF THE INDUSTRY IN WHICH THE COMPANY OPERATES DURING THE REPORTING PERIOD

(I) Industry Development Status

In 2025, the global landscape demonstrated new vitality amid ongoing adjustments. Against a backdrop of significant uncertainty arising from changes in the external environment, geopolitical conflicts, and supply chain volatility, the shared pursuit of resilience and security among global partners drove the continuous optimization of cooperation models and industrial ecosystems. At the same time, a new round of technological revolution and industrial transformation is undergoing in-depth development: accelerated application of AI has led to booming development of computing power and data center construction, directly driving investment demand in new infrastructure and green energy-saving sectors; in-depth integration of AI technology into corporate operations and management have effectively enhanced production efficiency and supply chain responsiveness through data-driven and intelligent decision-making capabilities. Against the backdrop of the global response to climate change, the technological and market potential of energy conservation and carbon reduction has been further unleashed, opening up new development opportunities for sustainable development. China's precise counter-cyclical adjustment policies, such as trade-in incentives, have stabilized domestic demand markets for household appliances and NEVs amid a complex environment, thereby strengthening the economy's inherent resilience. Overall, despite continuing challenges, the driving force of technological innovation and the global consensus on green transformation are injecting valuable certainty and development opportunities into the future global economy.

1. Refrigeration and air-conditioning product components industry

In 2025, extreme weather drove a growth in global demand for air conditioning, which unleashed potential in emerging markets. Increasingly stringent environmental and energy efficiency standards in North America and the EU continued to facilitate refrigerant replacement and system efficiency enhancement. The kitchen appliance segment had evolved toward integrated and intelligent development; the water heater segment faced demands for enhanced efficiency and energy structure adjustments; the vehicle refrigerator segment grew alongside expanding travel and mobile living scenarios; the commercial air-conditioning segment accelerated upgrades under green building regulations. Overall, demand for efficient, reliable thermal management capabilities continued to rise across all segments.

According to ChinaIOL, China's total production and sales of residential air-conditioning reached 198.39 million units in 2025, representing a slight year-on-year decline of 1.2%. Among those, domestic sales amounted to 105.21 million units, showing a slight year-on-year increase of 0.7%. In the second half of 2025, demand in the domestic household appliance market witnessed a decline following the withdrawal of state subsidy policies, leading to intensified market competition and escalating price wars in certain product categories. At the same time, the export market faced shipment pressures due to adjustments in overseas tariff policies and a growing trend towards localized production. Despite these challenges, the industry ultimately achieved a slight increase in overall revenue through proactive adjustments and optimization of product structure. Amid these challenges, enterprises are striving to adapt to the new market environment through technological innovation and efficiency enhancement. The restructuring of global supply chains is also driving the industry chains towards greater resilience.

Management Discussion and Analysis

According to ChinalOL, the central air-conditioning sector recorded sales of RMB138.68 billion, exhibiting a pattern of “sluggish domestic performance and booming exports”. Among which, the domestic sales amounted to RMB112.55 billion, down 7.4% year-on-year, while exports reached RMB26.14 billion, with a year-on-year growth of 12.7% against the trend. The domestic market faced significant pressure, particularly for small and medium-sized brands, due to a sluggish real estate market, weak demand for traditional engineering, and intensifying equipment price wars. The export market emerged as a crucial growth driver during this period of in-depth industry consolidation, driven by upgrades in the global data center industry, active expansion into emerging overseas markets of enterprises, enhancement in the performance of export products, and continuous advancement in localization efforts.

2. Automotive components industry

In 2025, the global automotive industry entered a phase of structural adjustment while advancing electrification. The growth rate of NEVs underwent a slowdown, yet the penetration rate maintained rapid expansion in emerging markets such as Southeast Asia and South America. The accelerated adoption of intelligent driving and high-performance in-vehicle electronic systems increased demands for thermal management systems and energy efficiency of vehicles, further highlighting the importance of battery safety and multi-condition adaptability. The EU’s adjustment to the implementation rules on ban on the sale of fuel vehicles and the phase-out of federal tax credits for electric vehicles as stipulated in the U.S. “One Big and Beautiful Act” have presented market challenges. The global automotive industry is undergoing an adjustment towards a new stage of development. Despite varying pace of electrification across different markets, intensified competition has posed short-term challenges for structural optimization. However, the industry is commencing in-depth integration into the wave of intelligent transformation at an unprecedented pace. As advanced autonomous driving technologies enter the early stages of widespread adoption, cutting-edge trends such as “embodied AI” have emerged as new battlegrounds in technology competition around the world. The convergence of intelligent and electric technologies is paving the way for a brighter future of sustainable development in the global automotive industry.

According to MarkLines and the China Passenger Car Association, global NEV sales reached 22.62 million units in 2025, representing a 29.04% year-on-year increase compared to that in 2024 and accounting for 23.6% of total global vehicle sales. As the world’s largest NEV market, China achieved annual NEV sales of 16.49 million units, representing a 28.2% year-on-year increase and accounting for 72.9% of annual global NEV sales in 2025, with new NEV sales accounting for 47.9% of total new vehicle sales.

Management Discussion and Analysis

(II) Industry Status

The Company has established a strong presence in the thermal management components sector, with extensive technical expertise and widespread recognition from customers. It serves as a strategic partner to numerous refrigeration, air conditioning, appliances, and automotive companies around the world. The Company is committed to improving the energy efficiency of various end-use products, and is leading global transformation towards the development of energy-efficient and environmentally friendly products. After more than three decades of efforts, the Company has established a leading position in the global refrigeration products and automotive thermal management sectors, with various products ranking among the top in the global market.

III. ANALYSIS OF CORE COMPETITIVENESS

(I) Commitment to Technological Innovation Fueling Rapid Product Iteration and Strategic Readiness for Future Industry Advancements

The Company focuses on investing in technologies that enable the Company to stay ahead of industry trends and establish a foundation for long-term growth. The Company develops forward-looking technologies through significant investment in the technology development process to support its future growth, and enhance its responsiveness to potential new customer requests that involve novel technological demands.

The Company has accumulated strong R&D capabilities and the ability for rapid product iteration and advancement. While consolidating its existing product advantages, the Company is also swiftly expanding into new industries, leveraging the synergies among various business segments. The Company is dedicated to establishing a globally competitive R&D system that encompasses all stages from initial concept to production. The robust technological foundation in valve and pump components related to thermal management enables the Company to swiftly adapt and apply technologies across various applications. Furthermore, the Company has ventured into the bionic robot electromechanical actuator market by capitalizing on its research and development and large-scale production capabilities. This allows the Company to offer competitive R&D solutions to customers, thereby establishing a new growth trajectory and bolstering customer loyalty. As at the end of the Reporting Period, the Company had six major R&D centers and 4,680 domestic and foreign licensed patents, including 2,560 licensed invention patents.

(II) Commitment to Lean Production and Efficient Resource Allocation

The Company's global manufacturing network, which uniformly employs lean production methodology, constitutes the core advantage of production capabilities. The Company benefits from economies of scale, with 8 production bases worldwide. The Company's production bases offer cost advantages through large-scale production line setups, while its individual factories located around the world provide the flexibility to swiftly respond to and meet the diverse needs of local customers. Moreover, its global production layout, which facilitates localized production or assembly, allows the Company to navigate the rapid global trade developments with greater ease and resilience.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The Company's production management pivots around optimizing resource allocation and implementing process automation, which reduces production cycles and enhances production efficiency. Through a combination of information technology and automation and by using Internet of Things technologies to realize real-time equipment performance monitoring and optimal production resources allocation, the Company achieves stable output and consistent product quality and elevates production efficiency, thereby meeting customer demands for product quality and timely delivery. Furthermore, through the implementation and continuous refinement of its automation initiatives, the Company significantly reduces repetitive manual labor and enhances both production precision and speed.

(III) A Comprehensive Quality Management System Incorporating Control Measures to Ensure the Delivery of High-quality Goods

The Company is dedicated to developing advanced manufacturing technologies and implementing a standardized quality control system to deliver superior products. The Company has established comprehensive quality standards that encompass all production processes and product categories. Its robust quality control system and procedures cover supplier management, new product development, procedure control and after-sales service. These efforts have earned the Company international certifications for quality, environmental health and safety and hazardous substance control systems, including ISO 9001, IATF 16949 and QC 080000. The Company greatly enhances product consistency and precision through rigorous research and development, stringent quality control during production, standardization of components and the implementation of automation technology. This approach allows the Company to boost production efficiency and reduce costs while maintaining high product quality. The Company is equipped with advanced quality inspection equipment and has a dedicated quality inspection team, which help the Company achieve a low defect rate in its products. Additionally, the Company has a robust after-sales service team dedicated to addressing quality issues.

(IV) An Early Entrant in Global Market Exploration, Bolstered by an Extensive Network Encompassing Sales, Research and Development and Manufacturing

The Company's global presence enables it to adeptly manage the cyclical fluctuations across various business segments and market demands. Being an early entrant started overseas sales efforts in the 1990s, the Company has established early advantage through strategic deployment in overseas markets. Over the years, the Company has successfully made many of its products household names enjoying global recognition. As of the end of the Reporting Period, the Company's products had reached America, Europe, Asia, Oceania and Africa, spanning over 80 countries and regions worldwide, and the Company conducted collaboration with many internationally renowned enterprises. The Company established four overseas production bases in Mexico, Poland, Vietnam and Thailand, and set up three overseas R&D bases in the United States and Germany. The Company's global R&D network and localized production and sales network enable it to quickly meet local customer needs and gain deeper insight into different markets.

Management Discussion and Analysis

(V) Long-term and In-depth Partnerships with Leading Enterprises to Drive Industry Development

Aiming to anticipate its customers' needs and foster mutual growth, the Company is dedicated to delivering products and services of the highest quality to maximize the value the Company creates for them. Building a robust industry ecosystem and nurturing strong customer relationships are among the Company's top priorities. Under the refrigeration and air-conditioning product components business, the Company has cooperated with the major customers, such as Carrier, BSH, Daikin, Gree, Haier, LG, Midea, Mitsubishi, Panasonic, Samsung, Siemens and Trane, and earned the Company extensive recognition from its customers. Under the automotive components business, the Company has cooperated with renowned automotive companies such as Mercedes-Benz, BMW, BYD, Ford, Geely, General Motors, GAC, Honda, Hyundai, Leapmotor, Li Auto, NIO, Stellantis, SAIC, Toyota, Volkswagen, Volvo and Xpeng, and also served automotive thermal management integrators such as Denso, Hanon, MAHLE and Valeo.

(VI) Profound Industry and Management Experience, Progressive Value Concepts and Forward-thinking Leadership

The Company's management team is highly experienced in the thermal management industry, possessing extensive industry expertise, clear market insights and strong management capabilities. The founder, Mr. Zhang Daocai, and the chairman, Mr. Zhang Yabo, have been dedicated to the advanced manufacturing and thermal management industries. A significant majority of the core members of the Company's management team comprise individuals with technical backgrounds and extensive expertise who possess a keen awareness of technology and product iterations. Beyond their management responsibilities, they actively lead different business segments, optimizing execution efficiency and exploring new possibilities for business growth. With their expertise in refrigeration and air-conditioning product components, automotive components and bionic robot electromechanical actuators, the management team have established a solid groundwork for the Company's evolution into a global industrial group spanning multiple industries and product categories.

IV. ANALYSIS OF MAIN BUSINESSES

Overview

During the Reporting Period, the Company achieved operating revenue of RMB31,011.7 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 11.0%; net profit attributable to owners of the Company was RMB4,062.9 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 31.1%. By product, operating revenue from the refrigeration and air-conditioning product components business was RMB18,584.7 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 12.2%; and operating revenue from the automotive components business was RMB12,427.0 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 9.1%.

1. Refrigeration and air-conditioning product components business

In 2025, the Company actively adjusted its market strategy and focused on core customers and key products. It accelerated the commercialization of new and iterative products, developed key market projects, advanced projects in the data center sector, and enhanced product competitiveness through cost reduction and efficiency enhancement, steadily increasing its market share. Furthermore, the Company continuously adjusted its sales strategy, optimized product sales structure, and boosted production efficiency, aiming to further consolidate its product competitiveness.

Management Discussion and Analysis

With respect to market consolidation and enhancement, the Company implemented regional sales targets, actively increased market share, deepened comprehensive cooperation with customers, and capitalized on iterations of valve products to boost profitability and market competitiveness. Meanwhile, the Company also advanced development in the data center sector. Centering on global data centers and computing power industries, it continuously tracked industry trends and changes in demand. In terms of product competitiveness, the Company prioritized new product R&D, established R&D projects, and continuously drove efficiency improvements. The Company advanced new product maturity management by focusing on quality issues, implemented quality digitalization, and launched an AI digital employee pilot program for precise efficiency improvement. At the same time, the Company leveraged digital empowerment to gradually evolve its information infrastructure from “system implementation” toward digital “efficiency enhancement and empowerment”.

2. Automotive components business

In 2025, through decisive strategic adjustments, the Company successfully evolved from “rapid market expansion” to “refined operations”.

In market and business development, the Company continued to expand operations across global regions. It achieved initial success in institutional construction, local talent cultivation, performance management, and cultural building at its overseas factories. By improving safety, compliance, inventory, delivery, expenses, and efficiency, it enhanced factory operational capabilities. In operations and management, the Company adhered to a “refined operations” strategy. Driven by ambitious targets, it focused on target cost achievement, integrated cost reduction, organizational optimization, and strong talent pool to fully advance cost reduction, efficiency improvement, and organizational optimization, thereby achieving profit growth. In terms of product and technology R&D, the Company continuously strengthened product competitiveness, continuously enhanced independent R&D capabilities, improved product quality, and accelerated digital-intelligent transformation and AI applications. The introduction of intelligent tools such as digital employees laid a solid foundation for sustainable business growth. Regarding supply chain and operational management, the Company built procurement management and global supply chain systems, developed overseas supply chains, and optimized procurement processes to achieve cost reduction in procurement. It standardized operational management to achieve operational optimization and efficiency enhancement.

3. Strategic emerging business (including bionic robot electromechanical actuator business)

In 2025, the Company focused on technical improvements for a number of key product models, cooperated with customers in the R&D, trial production, iteration, and sampling of key products. These efforts received high praise from customers and led to a series of innovative achievements related to existing products, resulting in an overall improvement in product competitiveness.

Management Discussion and Analysis

V. OUTLOOK FOR THE COMPANY'S FUTURE DEVELOPMENT

(I) The Company's Development Strategy

The Company adheres to the business philosophy of “focusing on excellence and innovating for success”, and firmly grasps the product development themes of energy conservation, environmental protection and intelligent control, with a strong emphasis on researching and applying heat pump technology and thermal management systems. By expanding its global business layout through continuous and leading product and technological innovation, the Company provides competitive intelligent environment control solutions for high-quality customers around the world, and become a global leader in the intelligent climate control system industry.

(II) 2026 Business Plan

1. Refrigeration and air-conditioning product components business

Amid intensifying involution in the domestic market and global uncertainties, AI is undergoing rapid development as an era-defining opportunity. The Company will accelerate new product R&D and market deployment, accelerate internal reforms, and continuously enhance operational efficiency. The Company will consistently introduce new solutions tailored to emerging applications and scenarios, drive upgrades to existing products and business systems, and relentlessly strengthen the Group's competitive edge. The Company will further commence quality-oriented initiatives to elevate overall quality management standards and consolidate management practices, while establishing an online learning platform to ensure the succession and replication of management expertise. The Company will continue to strengthen digital infrastructure, deepen AI exploration and application, and consolidate mature knowledge across sectors to build an AI knowledge base, enabling Q&A and data-driven inquiries to empower all employees. The Company will advance the deployment of digital employees and continuously expand their applications.

2. Automotive components business

The Company will continue to adhere to the operational principle of “refined operations and efficiency through management”, focus on customers, build product competitiveness, prioritize quality, strengthen risk control, and enhance global operations. The Company will remain committed to the core business of NEV thermal management. The Company will continuously enhance product competitiveness, and ensure technological leadership and market share. The Company will prioritize quality and risk management to guarantee the Company's sustainable development; persist in innovation, focus on customers, expand markets, and carry out strategic deployment; leverage synergies, build resilience through global expansion, advance organizational optimization, process reforms, digital intelligence and AI applications, as well as strengthen data-driven decision-making.

Management Discussion and Analysis

3. Strategic emerging businesses (including the bionic robot electromechanical actuator industry)

In the bionic robot business, the Company will focus on electromechanical actuators, cooperate with customers in the R&D, trial production, iteration, and sampling of key products, and increase its efforts in the development of key electromechanical actuator components. Furthermore, the Company will actively expand overseas production of electromechanical actuators and continuously expand its R&D team to consolidate its first-mover advantage in the emerging market of bionic robot electromechanical actuators.

(III) Major Risks in Future Development

1. Risk of raw material price fluctuations

The raw materials required for the Company's production, such as copper and aluminum, constitute a significant portion of product costs. Therefore, fluctuations in raw material market prices impose substantial cost pressures on the Company. The Company will mitigate the adverse effects of raw material price fluctuations on the Company by establishing a linked pricing mechanism, conducting commodity futures hedging operations, and promptly negotiating prices with customers.

2. Risk of sustained labor cost increases

The Company's labor costs have shown an upward trend annually, which has compressed profit margins to some extent. Moving forward, the Company will continuously enhance its intelligent manufacturing capabilities through the ongoing implementation of lean production, process improvements, and technological upgrades.

3. Trade and exchange rate risks

The Company maintains relatively substantial export volumes to regions including North America, Europe, Japan, and Southeast Asia. Changes in regional trade policies may exert an impact on daily operations of the Company. The Company mitigates regional trade risks through measures such as overseas capacity relocation. Exchange rate fluctuations will also have a certain impact on the Company's profitability. The Company mitigates and reduces foreign exchange risk through approaches such as forward exchange settlement and the establishment of overseas production bases based on actual circumstances. The Company possesses the supply chain capabilities focused on maximizing efficiency through global allocation in the past to the adaptability required for regional resource allocation and localization capabilities in response to the new requirements of fluctuating trade barrier measures at present.

Management Discussion and Analysis

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

In 2025, the Company adhered to sustainable and healthy development and achieved high-quality business growth. The revenue of the Group for the year was principally derived from (i) the sales of refrigeration and air-conditioning product components and (ii) the sales of automotive components. The total revenue of the Group reached RMB31,011.7 million, representing an increase of 11.0% as compared to the same period in 2024.

Revenue analysis by product and region

The following tables set forth an analysis of revenue by product category and sales region for the years indicated, presented in absolute amounts and as a percentage of total revenue, respectively.

By product category:

	RMB'000	%	RMB'000	%
Refrigeration and air-conditioning product components	18,584,744	59.9	16,560,605	59.3
Automotive components	12,427,001	40.1	11,386,560	40.7
Total	31,011,745	100.0	27,947,165	100.0

For the year ended December 31, 2025, revenue from refrigeration and air-conditioning product components increased by 12.2% from RMB16,560.6 million for year ended December 31, 2024 to RMB18,584.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2025, due to the increase of sales, supported by the supporting policies promoting low energy consumption, which drove the iterative upgrading of air-conditioning products.

Revenue from automotive components increased by 9.1% from RMB11,386.6 million for year ended December 31, 2024 to RMB12,427.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2025, primarily driven by the strong performance of the NEVs market boosting demand for thermal management systems.

Management Discussion and Analysis

By sales region:

	Year ended December 31, 2025		Year ended December 31, 2024
	RMB'000	%	RMB'000	%
China	17,688,256	57.0	15,446,506	55.3
Other countries or regions	13,323,489	43.0	12,500,659	44.7
Total	31,011,745	100.0	27,947,165	100.0

The Group generated revenue from both China and overseas markets. For the year ended December 31, 2025, revenue from China and other countries or regions increased compared with last year, mainly due to the Group's continued penetration into the Chinese market and the ongoing expansion of its global presence.

Cost of Revenue

The cost of revenue of the Group in 2025 amounted to RMB22,205.1 million, representing an increase of 9.2% as compared to the same period in 2024, which was in line with the growth trend of revenue during the Reporting Period. The breakdown of the cost categorized by product category is set out below:

Cost of revenue analysis by product

	RMB'000	%	RMB'000	%
Refrigeration and air-conditioning product components	13,283,267	59.8	12,078,850	59.4
Automotive components	8,921,797	40.2	8,247,496	40.6
Total	22,205,064	100.0	20,326,346	100.0

Management Discussion and Analysis

Gross profit and gross profit margin

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the gross profit margin of the Group was 28.4%, representing an increase of 1.1% from 27.3% for the year ended December 31, 2024, and the gross profit margin maintained steady growth. The breakdown of the gross profit categorized by product category is set out below:

Gross profit analysis by product

	RMB'000	%	RMB'000	%
Refrigeration and air-conditioning product components	5,301,477	60.2	4,481,755	58.8
Automotive components	3,505,204	39.8	3,139,064	41.2
Total	8,806,681	100.0	7,620,819	100.0

General and administrative expenses

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the general and administrative expenses of the Group amounted to RMB2,091.7 million, representing an increase of 7.4% from RMB1,946.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2024, mainly due to the increase in employee salaries for administrative personnel resulting from the Company's business expansion in 2025. It accounted for approximately 6.7% of the Group's revenue, remaining basically the same as compared to approximately 7.0% in 2024.

Selling and marketing expenses

For the year ended December 31 2025, the selling and marketing expenses of the Group amounted to RMB751.5 million, representing an increase of 3.5% from RMB726.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2024, mainly due to the increase in business development expenses, warehousing and transportation expenses.

Research and development expenses

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the research and development expenses of the Group amounted to RMB1,374.1 million, representing an increase of 1.6% from RMB1,351.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2024, accounting for 4.4% of the Group's revenue of 2025. The increase in the Group's research and development expenses as compared to that in 2024 was mainly attributable to the Group's continuous efforts to deepen its focus on core businesses while steadily concentrating on emerging business areas, along with a corresponding increase in the R&D team and direct investments.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Net reversal of impairment losses/(net impairment losses) on financial assets

Net impairment losses on financial assets mainly included impairment losses from changes in the loss allowance for trade receivables and notes receivable at amortized cost, as well as impairment losses from changes in the loss allowance for other receivables. For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group recorded a net reversal of impairment losses of RMB23.5 million, compared to a credit impairment loss of RMB56.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2024. The change was primarily attributable to a decrease in expected credit loss (ECL) rates resulting from an improvement in the aging structure.

Other income

The other income of the Group mainly included government grants, additional deduction for VAT, interest income and others. For the year ended December 31, 2025, the other income of the Group amounted to RMB410.6 million, representing an increase of RMB118.3 million from RMB292.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2024, mainly driven by increased government grants and VAT additional deductions for the year ended December 31, 2025.

Other losses, net

The Group's other losses primarily consists of net losses on disposal of financial instruments, fair value changes on derivative financial instruments and equity instruments and net foreign exchange differences, net losses on disposal of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and other long-term assets, and others. The Group recorded other losses of approximately RMB187.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2025 as compared to approximately RMB83.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2024, primarily due to the net loss of foreign exchange differences and fair value loss on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and recognition of disposal of financial instruments for the year ended December 31, 2025.

Income tax expense

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group's income tax expense was RMB737.1 million, representing an increase of RMB157.1 million from RMB580.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2024, which was mainly due to a further improvement in overall profitability for the year ended December 31, 2025.

During 2025, the effective tax rate was approximately 15.2%, representing a decrease of approximately 0.5% from approximately 15.7% in 2024.

Management Discussion and Analysis

FINANCIAL POSITION

The table below sets forth a summary of the Group's consolidated statements of financial position for the years indicated:

	As at December 31, 2025 RMB'000	As at December 31, 2024 RMB'000
Total non-current assets	15,683,617	14,053,586
Total current assets	33,722,514	22,301,163
Total assets	49,406,131	36,354,749
Total non-current liabilities	2,000,662	3,201,801
Total current liabilities	15,365,239	13,633,304
Total liabilities	17,365,901	16,835,105
Equity attributable to owners of the Company	31,748,928	19,297,770
Net assets	32,040,230	19,519,644

The Group's total non-current assets increased from RMB14,053.6 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB15,683.6 million as of December 31, 2025, primarily due to the increase in property, plant and equipment.

The Group's total current assets increased from RMB22,301.1 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB33,722.5 million as of December 31, 2025, mainly due to higher cash and cash equivalents balances.

The Group's total non-current liabilities decreased from RMB3,201.8 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB2,000.7 million as of December 31, 2025, primarily due to the reclassification of certain long-term borrowings due within one year to current liabilities.

The Group's total current liabilities increased from RMB13,633.3 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB15,365.2 million as of December 31, 2025, mainly due to an increase in short-term borrowings and accrual and other payables.

The Group's net assets increased from RMB19,519.6 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB32,040.2 million as of December 31, 2025, primarily driven by Hong Kong stock market financing and net profit growth.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Cash Flows

The table below sets forth a summary of the Group's consolidated statement of cash flows for the years indicated:

Net cash generated from operating activities	4,905,404	4,026,185
Net cash used in investing activities	(3,607,560)	(3,171,091)
Net cash from/(used in) financing activities	7,802,461	(955,299)
Net increase/(decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	9,100,305	(100,205)
Cash and cash equivalents at beginning of the year	3,443,503	3,624,955
Effects of exchange rate changes on cash and cash equivalents	(56,619)	(81,247)
Cash and cash equivalents at end of the year	12,487,189	3,443,503

The Group's net cash generated from operating activities amounted to RMB4,905.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2025. The difference between the net cash generated from operating activities and the profit before tax of RMB4,843.8 million was primarily attributable to the following: (1) Depreciation and amortization of non-current assets amounting to RMB1,256.4 million; (2) Changes in working capital, which mainly included an increase of RMB1,394.7 million in receivables, an increase of RMB827.0 million in payables, and partially offset by an increase of RMB405.6 million in inventories.

The Group's net cash used in investing activities amounted to RMB3,607.6 million, primarily resulting from cash payments of RMB7,015.4 million for the purchase of wealth management products and the placement of term deposits, as well as payments of RMB3,152.4 million for the purchase of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and other non-current assets, partially offset by the withdrawal of term deposits and wealth management products totalling RMB6,849.1 million.

The Group's net cash generated from financing activities amounted to RMB7,802.5 million, mainly due to the net receipt of Hong Kong stock proceeds of RMB 9,650.7 million and proceeds from borrowings of RMB1,820.3 million, partially offset by loan repayments of RMB2,212.1 million.

Management Discussion and Analysis

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The total borrowings of the Group as at December 31, 2025, including all bank loans, amounted to approximately RMB3,742.5 million (December 31, 2024: RMB4,099.5 million). The repayment terms of the bank loans are as follows: approximately RMB2,879.8 million are due within one year, RMB862.7 million are due from the first to second year.

As at December 31, 2025, the Group recorded net current assets of approximately RMB18,357.3 million compared to approximately RMB8,667.9 million as at December 31, 2024. The Group's current ratio (namely current assets divided by current liabilities as at the relevant dates) increased from 1.6 as of December 31, 2024 to 2.2 as of December 31, 2025.

As at December 31, 2025, the Group's cash and cash equivalents amounted to approximately RMB12,487.2 million and the Group's cash and cash equivalents amounted to approximately RMB3,443.5 million as at December 31, 2024. The Group's cash and cash equivalents are mainly denominated in RMB, US$, and EUR.

The Group's trade receivables turnover days were approximately 88 days in 2025, which were approximately 1 days longer than approximately 87 days in 2024. This was mainly due to the increase in the revenue contribution from customers with longer trade receivables cycles, partially offset by the Group's enhanced management and control of payback in 2025.

The Group's trade payables turnover days were approximately 98 days in 2025, representing an increase of approximately 4 days from approximately 94 days in 2024, mainly attributable to an increase in the proportion of suppliers with longer payment terms and the extended payment cycles upon active negotiations with suppliers based on the Group's growth in scale.

The Group's inventories turnover days were approximately 90 days in 2025, essentially in line with the 89 days recorded in 2024.

The Group is of the view that the favorable performance in sales, production, R&D, and a healthy cash reserve during 2025 have provided a solid guarantee for sustainable development in the future.

Management Discussion and Analysis

CAPITAL STRUCTURE

The financial department under the Group is responsible for its financial risk management, aiming to ensure that the liquidity structure of the assets, liabilities and other commitments of the Group could meet its funding needs on an ongoing basis.

The borrowings of the Group were mainly settled in RMB, while its cash and cash equivalents were mainly held in RMB, Euro, and U.S. dollars. The Group planned to maintain an appropriate portfolio of equity and debt during 2025 to ensure an effective capital structure. As at December 31, 2025, the Group's outstanding loans are predominantly RMB-denominated, with a portion in USD and Euro. Approximately 36.3% of these outstanding loans bear interest at fixed rates, and the remainder at floating rates.

The Group monitored the capital structure by asset-liability ratio (i.e. total debt divided by total assets and multiplied by 100%), with its policies to maintain financial stability and support the sustainable, healthy and rapid development of the Group's business. The asset-liability ratio of the Group as at December 31, 2025 was 35.1% (December 31, 2024: 46.3%). The decrease was mainly due to the inflow of funds raised from the Company's H-share listing and cash flows generated from operating activities during 2025. The Group maintained its financial stability amidst rapid business development.

CAPITAL EXPENDITURES

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group's capital expenditures amounted to RMB2,915.6 million representing a decrease of RMB1,406.1 million from RMB4,321.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2024. Capital expenditures primarily consist of expenditure on purchase of property, land and equipment (including right-of-use assets) and intangible assets. The Group's capital expenditures were primarily funded by cash flows generated from operating activities, proceeds from share issuance and bank borrowings.

CAPITAL COMMITMENTS

The contracted commitments decreased from RMB1,525.9 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB990.3 million as of December 31, 2025, primarily reflecting the Group's ongoing construction of factories and R&D center in Zhongshan, Hangzhou and overseas.

The authorized, but not contracted commitments decreased from RMB5,458.0 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB5,321.7 million as of December 31, 2025, primarily reflecting the Group's ongoing construction plans of factories for automotive components, in particular, for NEVs, in Hangzhou, Shaoxing, Zhongshan and Mexico.

Management Discussion and Analysis

CHARGES ON ASSETS

As at December 31, 2025, the Group had notes receivables of RMB3,639,996,000 and approximately RMB2,436,746,000 (December 31, 2024: RMB1,839,462,000) were pledged for bank acceptance notes for daily payment of goods.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE RISK

The Group's operations are geographically diversified, with production bases and sales markets spanning major developed and developing countries and regions, including the United States, the European Union, Japan, India, and Mexico. Most of the Group's income and expenditure are settled in RMB and US dollars, exposing the Group to potential earnings volatility arising from fluctuations in exchange rates.

To mitigate this risk, the Group has implemented a comprehensive set of foreign exchange risk management strategies in accordance with its internal policies. The management closely monitors currency trends and dynamically adjusts the timing of export settlements. The Group also employs a "domestic guarantee, foreign loan" structure for overseas financing to naturally hedge foreign currency assets against liabilities, and utilises forward contracts and cross-currency swaps to lock in exchange rates for future cash flows. These measures collectively enable the Group to actively manage and control its foreign exchange exposure.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

The Group may incur contingent liabilities arising from various claims or legal proceedings in the ordinary course of business. As of December 31, 2025, the Group did not have any significant contingent liabilities.

MATERIAL INVESTMENTS HELD

As at December 31, 2025, the Group did not hold any material investment, which refers to an investment with investment amounts in an investee company that accounted for 5% or more of the Group's total assets.

MATERIAL ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSALS OF SUBSIDIARIES, ASSOCIATES AND JOINT VENTURES

During the 12 months ended December 31, 2025, the Group did not undertake any material acquisitions or disposals of subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures.

FUTURE PLANS FOR MATERIAL INVESTMENTS OR ACQUISITIONS OF CAPITAL ASSETS AND EXPECTED SOURCES OF FUNDING

As at December 31, 2025, the Group had no other plans for material investments or acquisitions of capital assets.

Management Discussion and Analysis

USE OF PROCEEDS

Use of Proceeds from the Listing of H Shares

The Company's H Shares were listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange on June 23, 2025. A total of 414,379,500 H Shares were initially issued in the Global Offering; subsequently, on July 23, 2025, the Company issued additional 62,156,900 H Shares under the Over-allotment Option. A total of 476,536,400 H Shares with a nominal value of RMB1.00 each were issued in the Global Offering (including the issue of H Shares pursuant to the Over-allotment Option as described in the Prospectus). The Offer Price was HK$22.53 per H Share (exclusive of brokerage fee of 1%, SFC transaction levy of 0.0027%, Stock Exchange trading fee of 0.00565% and AFRC transaction levy of 0.00015%). The total proceeds from the Global Offering of the Company amounted to approximately HK$10,736.4 million, the net proceeds amounted to approximately HK$10,570.1 million (RMB9,650.7 million) (adjusted after listing fees and exchanges rates).

The net proceeds from the Global Offering will be utilized in accordance with the plan disclosed in the section headed "Future Plans and Use of Proceeds" in the Prospectus, namely:

Item	Percentage of net proceeds	Net proceeds planned to be used (after the exercise of the Over-allotment Option) (RMB million)	Utilized amount as of December 31, 2025 (RMB million)	Unutilized net amount as of December 31, 2025 (RMB million)	Expected timeline of full utilization ⁽¹⁾
Used for continuous global R&D and innovation of product mix	30%	2,895.2	182.8	2,712.4	By the end of 2028
Used to expand and establish production facilities and increase the production automation level in China over the next three years	30%	2,895.2	688.1	2,207.1	By the end of 2028
Used to deepen global layout by expanding the Group's overseas production capabilities	25%	2,412.7	212.1	2,200.6	By the end of 2028

Note:

- (1) The expected timeline for the utilization of unutilized net proceeds set out in the table above represents the Group's best estimates based on the anticipated market conditions, which may be subject to change in response to current and future market developments.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Use of Proceeds from A Shares Convertible Bonds

Pursuant to the Approval on the Public Offering of Convertible Corporate Bonds by Zhejiang Sanhua Intelligent Controls Co., Ltd. (Zheng Jian Xu Ke [2021] No. 168) (《關於核准浙江三花智能控制股份有限公司公開發行可轉換公司債券的批覆》(證監許可[2021]168號)) issued by the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the Company publicly issued 30.0 million convertible corporate bonds (the “Sanhua Convertible Bonds”) in June 2021, each with a nominal value of RMB100. A total of RMB3,000 million was raised. After deducting the issuance expenses of RMB12.5 million, the net amount of proceeds was RMB2,987.5 million. The net amount of proceeds carried forward to the current fiscal year are RMB697.8 million.

During the Reporting Period, the Company used the net proceeds from the issuance of A Shares convertible bonds as described in the Prospectus for the Public Offering of Convertible Corporate Bonds of Zhejiang Sanhua Intelligent Controls Co., Ltd. As at December 31, 2025, the details of the use of proceeds are as follows:

Item	Total proceeds planned to be used (RMB million)	Adjusted total proceeds planned to be used (RMB million)	Utilized amount during the Reporting year (RMB million)	Utilized amount as of December 31, 2025 (RMB million)	Balance as of December 31, 2025 (RMB million)	Expected time for using the total amount of unutilized proceeds ⁽²⁾

Corporate Governance Report

CORPORATE CULTURE

The Company firmly believes that a sound and well-regulated corporate governance culture is a vital safeguard for protecting the long-term interests of Shareholders and creating greater value for Shareholders and other stakeholders; a positive and healthy corporate culture is of paramount importance to the Group's realization of its mission, vision, and strategic objectives. The Board and senior management will play an important role, placing high emphasis on and continuously deepening the development of corporate culture, while actively promoting and vigorously practicing the corporate culture and core values within the Group.

The Company's mission and vision, strategy, and core values are as follows:

Sanhua Philosophy

Mission and Vision

Develop an intelligent, low-carbon economy and foster a green, high-quality environment

Strategy

Build a global climate intelligent control empire and lead the development trends of the global industry through focused, leading-edge technology

Core Values

- Create value for customers
- Uphold foundations and pursue innovation
- Strive with a sense of responsibility and share success through diversity

The essence and soul of "Sanhua": "blossoming of management, technology and talent". Capturing the three key elements of management, technology and talent is the underlying logic behind Sanhua's continuous development and the success formula that enables Sanhua's people to secure the market. The Company consistently upholds Sanhua's philosophy of "rapid response and immediate action" and Sanhua's spirit of "striving for perfection and pursuing excellence". The Company has established a governance mechanism characterized by clear delineation of authority and responsibility, as well as efficient collaboration. It is committed to fostering a corporate culture that embodies a global perspective, innovative capabilities and long-term development.

Corporate Governance Report

Looking ahead, the Company will keep abreast with global market reforms and industry trends, continuously optimize its corporate culture and governance model, harness joint development through culture, drive long-term and steady corporate growth, and create greater value for global customers, employees, and society.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE CODE

The Company aims to implement high standards of corporate governance, which the Company believes is crucial to safeguard the interests of Shareholders. The Company has adopted the code provisions of the Corporate Governance Code as the basis for its corporate governance practices. During the period from the Listing Date until December 31, 2025, to the best knowledge of the Directors, except for the deviation from code provision of part 2 of the Corporate Governance Code below, the Company has complied with all applicable code provisions in the Corporate Governance Code.

Pursuant to code provision C.2.1 of part 2 of the Corporate Governance Code, companies listed on the Stock Exchange are expected to comply with, but may choose to deviate from the requirement that the responsibilities between the chairman of the Board and the chief executive officer should be segregated and should not be performed by the same individual. The Group does not have a separate chairman of the Board and chief executive officer, and Mr. Zhang Yabo currently performs these two roles. The Board believes that vesting the roles of both chairman of the Board and chief executive officer in the same person has the benefit of ensuring consistent leadership within the Group and enables more effective and efficient overall strategic planning for the Group. The Board considers that the balance of power and authority for the present arrangement is not impaired, and this structure will enable the Company to make and implement decisions promptly and effectively.

Pursuant to code provision C.1.5 of part 2 of the Corporate Governance Code, independent non-executive Directors and other non-executive Directors should attend general meetings to gain and develop a comprehensive understanding of Shareholders' views. Due to work commitments, two non-executive Directors and three independent non-executive Directors of the Company were unable to attend the extraordinary general meeting held on August 21, 2025. However, the Board believes that such absences were reasonable and non-recurring. The absent non-executive Directors and independent non-executive Directors had all thoroughly reviewed the meeting documents in advance, fully understood the content of each resolution, and fulfilled their duties as directors by submitting written opinions. This temporary absence will not have any material adverse impact on the Company's corporate governance levels, the normal functioning of the Board, and daily business operations.

Corporate Governance Report

Model Code for Securities Transactions

The Company has adopted the Model Code as its code of conduct regarding securities transactions by the Directors and Supervisors. Having made specific enquiry of all the Directors and Supervisors, all Directors and Supervisors confirmed that they have complied with the provisions of the Model Code from the Listing Date until December 31, 2025. The Company has also established written guidelines for securities transactions by employees who are likely to be in possession of inside information of the Company on terms no less exacting than the Model Code. The Company is not aware of any incident of non-compliance of the written guidelines by the employees.

When the Company is aware of any restricted period for dealings in the Company's securities, the Company will notify its Directors, Supervisors and relevant employees in advance.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Composition of the Board of Directors

The Company has established a Board of Directors, which is accountable to the general meeting. The Board consists of ten Directors, including four executive Directors, two non-executive Directors, and four independent non-executive Directors. The Company has appointed one Chairman of the Board.

Executive Directors	Mr. Zhang Yabo (張亞波先生) (Chairman of the Board) Mr. Wang Dayong (王大勇先生) Mr. Ni Xiaoming (倪曉明先生) (Employee Representative Director) Mr. Chen Yuzhong (陳雨忠先生)

Independent Non-executive Directors	Mr. Bao Ensi (鮑恩斯先生) Mr. Shi Jianhui (石建輝先生) Ms. Pan Yalan (潘亞嵐女士) Mr. Ge Jun (葛俊先生)

Corporate Governance Report

Duties of and responsibilities of Directors and management

The Board serves as the decision-making body for the Company's operations and management. It safeguards the interests of the Company and all Shareholders and, within the scope of the Articles of Association and the authority granted by the general meeting, is responsible for formulating the Company's development objectives and decisions regarding major business activities. The Board is responsible for fulfilling the duties set forth in code provision A.2.1 of the Corporate Governance Code. The Audit Committee, the Remuneration and Evaluation Committee, the Nomination Committee, and the Strategy Management and ESG Committee have been established under the Board. Rules of procedure for each specialized committee have been formulated to clearly define their primary duties and responsibilities, decision-making procedures, and rules of procedure. Each specialized committee is accountable to the Board and performs its duties and responsibilities within the scope of the Articles of Association and the Board's authorization; relevant proposals shall be submitted to the Board for consideration and decision.

The Company's day-to-day management, administration, and operations are led by the Board and senior management of the Company. The Board assigns various duties and responsibilities to management, who are responsible for executing the Board's decisions and for guiding and coordinating the Company's daily operations and management. The Board periodically reviews the assigned duties and responsibilities and work tasks. Management shall obtain the Board's approval prior to entering into any material transactions.

Except for matters requiring approval by the general meeting in accordance with laws, regulations, regulatory requirements, and the Articles of Association, the Board retains the final decision-making authority over the Company's major matters, including but not limited to business plans and investment proposals, major transactions, the appointment and removal of senior management, and other material financial and operational matters. It regularly reviews and evaluates the exercise of authority and the fulfilment of duties and responsibilities. The duties and responsibilities for implementing Board decisions, guiding, and coordinating the Company's daily operations and management are authorized to the management.

Requirements for Independent Non-executive Directors

During the period from the Listing Date to the date of this report, the Board has at all times met the requirements of the Listing Rules of having a minimum of three independent non-executive Directors (representing at least one-third of the Board) with one of them possessing appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise.

The Company has received annual written confirmations from the independent non-executive Directors regarding their independence in accordance with the independence guidelines set out in Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules. The Company considers that all independent non-executive Directors are independent.

Corporate Governance Report

Independence of the Board

To the best of knowledge of the Company, save for executive Director Mr. Zhang Yabo and non-executive Director Mr. Zhang Shaobo are brothers, there was no relationship (including financial, business, family or other material/relevant relationship) among the Board members that were required to be disclosed. The Company has established practical and effective mechanisms to ensure that the Board can obtain independent views and opinions. All Directors have timely access to all relevant data, as well as the advice and services of the Company's joint company secretaries and senior management, to ensure compliance with Board procedures and all applicable laws and regulations. Any Director may, upon making a reasonable request to the Board, seek independent professional advice where appropriate, with the costs borne by the Company. During the period from the Listing Date to the date of this report, the Board has reviewed the mechanisms for Board independence and considers that such mechanisms are being effectively implemented.

Appointment and Re-election of Directors

Pursuant to the Articles of Association, the Company's Directors (other than the employee representative Director) are elected and appointed by the general meeting for a term of three years and are eligible for re-election upon expiry of their terms of office. According to the relevant PRC laws and regulations, independent non-executive Directors shall not serve for more than six consecutive years. The employee representative Director shall be elected and removed through the employee representatives meeting, employee meeting or otherwise democratically, which is not required to be submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

Board rules and meeting procedures

The annual meeting schedule and the draft agenda for each meeting are provided to Directors in advance. Reasonable notice is given for regular Board meetings and other Board and committee meetings. Board materials, together with all appropriate, complete, and reliable information, are delivered to all Directors at least three days prior to each Board meeting or committee meeting to ensure that Directors are informed of the Company's latest developments and financial condition and are able to make informed decisions. Where necessary, the Board and individual Directors may also engage with senior management separately and independently.

Senior management attends regular Board meetings and, when required, other Board and committee meetings to provide advice on business development, financial and accounting matters, legal and regulatory compliance, corporate governance, and other key matters of the Company.

The company secretary is responsible for recording and maintaining the minutes of all Board and committee meetings. The minutes of Board and committee meetings shall provide detailed records of the matters considered and the decisions reached, including any questions raised or dissenting views expressed by the Directors.

Corporate Governance Report

Note:

(1) Mr. Ge Jun (葛俊先生) was appointed as the Company's independent non-executive Director on June 23, 2025.

Effective January 1, 2026, the Board will hold regular meetings in person or via electronic means in accordance with the Corporate Governance Code, and will schedule at least four meetings annually at appropriate times. Board committees will schedule meetings in accordance with the Corporate Governance Code and the respective terms of reference.

In addition to regular Board meetings, the Chairman of the Board will also hold an annual meeting with the independent non-executive Directors, at which no other Directors will be present.

Corporate Governance Report

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OF DIRECTORS

The Directors shall keep abreast of regulatory developments and changes in order to effectively discharge their duties and ensure that they contribute to the Board with full knowledge and in a manner appropriate to the requirements.

All Directors receive a formal and comprehensive induction upon their initial appointment to ensure they have an appropriate understanding of the Company's business and operations, and are fully aware of the Directors' responsibilities and obligations under the Listing Rules and relevant legal requirements.

Each Director confirms that he or she (i) obtained legal advice as described in Rule 3.09D of the Listing Rules on December 19, 2024, and (ii) understands his or her responsibilities as a Director of a listed issuer under the Listing Rules.

The Directors shall participate in appropriate continuing professional development training to enhance and update their knowledge and skills. The Company arranges lectures, seminars, and relevant training for Directors, and from time to time provides Directors with reading materials regarding the Company's business or Directors' duties and responsibilities, as well as the latest information on applicable laws, corporate governance, and regulations applicable to the Group, for their study and reference.

No meetings of the Strategy Management and ESG Committee were held during the period from the Listing Date to December 31, 2025.

BOARD DIVERSITY POLICY

The Company has adopted a Board diversity policy, which outlines the methods for achieving diversity on the Board. The Company fully recognizes and embraces the benefits of a diverse Board and views increasing diversity at the Board level (including gender diversity) as a key factor in maintaining the Company's competitive advantage and in helping to attract, retain, and motivate employees from the broadest possible talent pool. In accordance with the Board diversity policy, when reviewing and evaluating candidates suitable for appointment as Directors of the Company, the Nomination Committee will consider various factors, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, professional qualifications, skills, knowledge, and industry and regional experience. Specifically, the Company currently has 1 female Director on the Board and will continue to strive to enhance gender diversity on the Board. The Directors possess a balanced mix of knowledge and skills, with 6 non-executive Directors, including 4 independent non-executive Directors, bringing diverse industry backgrounds. Taking into account the Company's existing business model, specific needs, and the diverse backgrounds of the Directors, the composition of the Board aligns with the Board diversity policy. In accordance with the Board diversity policy, the Nomination Committee will hold regular discussions and, where necessary, reach a consensus on measurable targets for achieving Board diversity (including gender diversity), and submit recommendations to the Board for formal adoption.

The Company is committed to enhancing the level of gender diversity among the Board, senior management and all employees. As of the end of the Reporting Period, the percentage of female employees in the Group to the total number of employees was approximately 35.19%, aiming to achieve a female employee percentage of 38% by the year of 2030. In the future, the Group will continue to optimize its personnel structure in the recruitment and selection of senior management and other talent, and steadily advance the gender diversity within its workforce.

REMUNERATION POLICY OF DIRECTORS, SUPERVISORS AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT

The remuneration of Directors, Supervisors and senior management is proposed by the Remuneration and Evaluation Committee and approved by the Board, and implemented after the deliberation of general meeting.

The remuneration plans for the Company's Directors, Supervisors and senior management are implemented in accordance with the Company's unified remuneration management system and performance evaluation mechanism. The allowance standards for Independent Directors shall be considered and approved at the general meeting. In terms of the decision-making process, the Company's performance evaluation mechanism conducts regular comprehensive assessments of the relevant personnel's job performance, achievement of business targets, and business innovation capabilities. The evaluation results serve as the core basis for determining remuneration. Remuneration is primarily determined based on the Company's financial indicators, the achievement of business objectives, individual scope of responsibilities, and performance against various indicators, while also taking into account their actual contributions to operational management. Actual remuneration payments are strictly executed in accordance with the confirmed evaluation results and the approved plan, and the filing and information disclosure procedures are performed in accordance with the regulations.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, details regarding the remuneration of Directors and Supervisors are set forth in the sections headed "12. Employee Benefit Expenses (including Directors' Remuneration)" "(a) Directors' and Supervisors' remuneration" under "Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements" of this report.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, information regarding the Company's five highest paid individuals is set forth in the sections headed "12. Employee Benefit Expenses (including Directors' Remuneration)" "(c) Five highest paid individuals" under "Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements" of this report.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, details of the annual remuneration of the Company's senior management by level are set forth below:

Senior management remuneration level	Number of senior management members
RMB
2,000,001–3,000,000	3
3,000,001–4,000,000	1
4,000,001–5,000,000	1

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group did not pay any remuneration to any Director or any of the five highest paid individuals as an inducement to join the Group or upon joining the Group, or as compensation for termination of employment. For the year ended December 31, 2025, no Director waived or agreed to waive any remuneration. Except as disclosed in this report, no other payments of remuneration have been made, or are payable, during the Reporting Period, by the Group to any of the Company's Directors or their representatives.

The Company has not changed its domestic auditor in the past three years. Since the issuance of H Shares and listing on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange on June 23, 2025, the Company has not changed its overseas auditor.

The Company has appointed Pan-China Certified Public Accountants LLP and Confucius International CPA Limited as its domestic and overseas auditors for 2025 respectively.

The nature of services provided by the auditors to the Group and their service fees are set out below:

Nature of services	Service fees
	RMB
Audit services (domestic auditor)	3,000,000
Audit services (international auditor)	1,300,000
Non-audit services ⁽¹⁾	3,077,800

Note:

(1) Non-audit services primarily include tax consulting and the review of interim reports.

JOINT COMPANY SECRETARIES

Mr. Hu Kaicheng (胡凱程先生) and Ms. Ho Wing Nga (何詠雅女士) have been appointed as joint company secretaries of the Company. Ms. Ho Wing Nga (何詠雅女士) is the managing director of Entity Solutions of Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, a provider of corporate services.

All Directors may seek advice and assistance from the joint company secretaries regarding corporate governance and Board practices and affairs. Mr. Hu Kaicheng (胡凱程先生), one of the joint company secretaries, has been designated as the Company's primary contact person. He collaborates and communicates with Ms. Ho Wing Nga (何詠雅女士) regarding the Company's corporate governance, as well as secretarial and administrative matters.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, Mr. Hu Kaicheng (胡凱程先生) and Ms. Ho Wing Nga (何詠雅女士) have complied with Rule 3.29 of the Listing Rules by completing no less than 15 hours of relevant professional training, respectively.

Corporate Governance Report

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The Group faces various risks in the course of its operations. The Group has established a set of internal control and risk management policies and procedures to address identified potential operational, financial, legal, and market risks related to its business. The Group's policies and procedures cover the management of procurement and production, as well as the monitoring of the Group's sales performance and product quality.

To monitor the ongoing implementation of post-listing risk management policies and corporate governance measures, the Group has implemented or will continue to implement the following risk management measures:

1. Establish an Audit Committee to review and oversee the Company's financial reporting procedures and internal control systems;
2. Adopt policies to ensure compliance with the Listing Rules, including but not limited to aspects related to risk management, connected transactions, and information disclosure;
3. Conduct training sessions for Directors, Supervisors, and senior management on the requirements of the Listing Rules and the duties and responsibilities of Directors of Hong Kong-listed companies;
4. Provide regular training to senior management and employees on professional conduct requirements and ethical standards to enhance their understanding of and compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and incorporate relevant policies regarding non-compliance into employee disciplinary measures and supervision guidelines;
5. Establish clear guidelines and procedures for identifying, measuring, and addressing price and currency risks to ensure that all hedging activities are conducted within a structured and consistent framework;
6. Strengthen reporting and record-keeping systems at production facilities, including centralized management of their quality control and safety management systems, and conduct regular inspections of facilities;
7. Establish emergency procedures to address major quality-related issues;
8. Organize enhanced training programs on quality assurance and product safety procedures; and
9. Distribute employee handbooks to raise employees' awareness of compliance with laws and regulations.

The Group regularly conducts systematic reviews and post-event analyses of significant risk incidents that have occurred in past operations to identify the sources of risk, assess the extent of impacts, and conduct in-depth analyses of root causes, thereby providing targeted improvement directions for the next round of strategic planning. With regard to any significant internal control deficiencies, the Company's management will investigate such deficiencies, review control activities and procedures, and amend internal policies and procedures as necessary.

The Board is responsible for the risk management and internal control systems, and conducts a comprehensive review of the effectiveness of internal control and risk management at least once a year. The annual review also covers the financial reporting and internal audit functions as well as staff qualifications, experience and related resources. Such internal control and risk management are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss. The Board reviewed the internal control systems for the year ended December 31, 2025, and determined that the systems are effective and adequate.

INSIDE INFORMATION DISCLOSURE POLICY

The Company has established the Registration and Management System for Persons with Access to Inside Information, which stipulates that: (a) prior to the public disclosure of inside information, the Company, its Directors, senior management, and relevant persons with access to inside information shall limit the number of individuals aware of the information to the minimum necessary; documents containing material information shall be submitted and safeguarded by designated personnel. Prior to the lawful disclosure of inside information, persons with access to inside information shall properly safeguard documents, disks, audio tapes, meeting minutes, resolutions, and other materials containing inside information. They shall not lend such materials to others for reading or copying, nor shall they entrust others to carry or safeguard them on their behalf. Persons with access to inside information shall take appropriate measures to ensure that relevant inside information stored on computers cannot be accessed or copied by others. (b) Prior to the lawful disclosure of inside information, the Company's Shareholders and actual controllers shall not abuse their Shareholder rights or dominant position, nor shall they demand that the Company provide them with inside information. (c) Persons with access to inside information shall not buy or sell the Company's shares or derivatives, nor recommend that others buy or sell the Company's shares or derivatives, prior to the public disclosure of the inside information. (d) Persons with access to inside information shall not disclose the content of such information to others, shall not use inside information to seek gain for themselves, relatives or others, and shall not engage in insider trading or recommend that others trade based on inside information.

The Company has also established the Information Disclosure Management System, which stipulates that persons with access to information are obligated to maintain the confidentiality of such information prior to its public announcement. They shall not disclose such information to third parties before it is publicly disclosed, nor shall they use such inside information to trade the Company's securities, disclose such information, or recommend that others trade such securities.

The Company will periodically review the implementation and effectiveness of its insider information management policies to ensure continued compliance with the regulatory requirements for A+H Share-listed companies.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors acknowledge their responsibility for the preparation of the financial statements with the support of the accounting and finance teams.

The Directors have prepared the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the IASB. In addition to adopting revised standards, amendments, and interpretations, the Group has consistently adopted and applied appropriate accounting policies.

The Company's consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, and the Directors consider that these financial statements give a true and fair view of the Group's financial position, operating performance, and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2025, and that the other financial information and disclosures contained in the report comply with the relevant statutory requirements.

The reporting responsibilities of the Company's external auditor regarding the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025, are set out in the Independent Auditor's Report in this annual report.

Corporate Governance Report

ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY AND WHISTLEBLOWING MECHANISM

The Group maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward corruption and takes all necessary measures to prevent and combat corrupt practices. The Group has formulated and published the Sanhua Intelligent Controls Business Ethics Statement, which is the Company's first policy on business ethics. This statement clearly outlines the Group's management mechanisms regarding employee integrity management, supplier integrity management, conflict of interest prevention, and anti-unfair competition.

To enhance the standard of business ethics management and regulate employee conduct, the Company actively implements various control measures, including but not limited to: (i) actively maintaining various reporting channels, establishing regulations for the management and handling of reported leads, and encouraging employees to report violations of business ethics; (ii) consistently prioritizing the protection of whistleblowers, allowing for anonymous or pseudonymous reporting, and strictly safeguarding whistleblower information throughout all stages of acceptance, registration, storage, and investigation; and (iii) conducting anti-corruption training for Directors and employees.

COMMUNICATION WITH SHAREHOLDERS AND INVESTORS

The Company believes that effective communication with Shareholders is essential for strengthening investor relations and ensuring that investors understand the Group's business performance and strategies. The Company also recognizes the importance of transparent and timely disclosure of corporate information, which enables Shareholders and investors to make the best investment decisions.

The Company maintains a website at www.zjshc.com as a platform for communication with Shareholders and investors to provide the public with the latest information on the Group's business operations, development and financial data. In accordance with the paperless listing system, the Company will distribute corporate communications in both Chinese and English on the Stock Exchange's website (www.hkexnews.hk) and the Company's website (www.zjshc.com), and will not issue printed versions. If any Shareholder wishes to receive a printed version, please refer to the notice dated July 10, 2025, and the "Dissemination of Corporate Communications" section under "Investor Relations – H-Shares – Announcements and Information" on the Company's website for details on the application procedure.

The Company's general meetings provide an opportunity for the Board to communicate with Shareholders. The Company will issue notices to Shareholders at least 21 days prior to the annual general meeting and at least 15 days prior to all other general meetings.

To safeguard the interests and rights of Shareholders, the Company will present separate resolutions at the general meetings for each substantially separate matter (including the election of individual Directors). All resolutions presented at the general meetings will be voted on in accordance with the Listing Rules, and the voting results will be published on the Company's website and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange's website following the conclusion of each general meeting.

The Company has established the Investor Relations Management System to ensure that Shareholders' opinions and concerns are properly addressed. During the period from the Listing Date to the date of this report, the Company has reviewed the Investor Relations Management System and considers that it has been effectively implemented through the above measures.

SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS

Convening of General Meetings

Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Shares of the Company shall be entitled to request the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and such request shall be made in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating whether it agrees or disagrees with the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within ten days after receiving such request. In the event that the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of the meeting shall be issued within five days after the Board passes the relevant resolution. Any changes to the original request made in the notice shall be agreed by the relevant Shareholders. In the event that the Board disagrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting or does not furnish any reply within ten days after receiving such request, Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company shall propose to the Audit Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and such proposal shall be made in writing. In the event that the Audit Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of the meeting shall be issued within five days after receiving such request. Any changes to the original request made in the notice shall be agreed by the relevant Shareholders. Failure of the Audit Committee to issue the notice of general meeting within the prescribed time limit shall be deemed as failure of the Audit Committee to convene and preside over a general meeting, and Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days are entitled to convene and preside over a general meeting on their own accord.

For further details, please refer to the Company's Articles of Association.

Proposals at General Meetings

Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the Shares of the Company may submit an ad hoc proposal in writing to the convener at least ten days prior to the convening of the general meeting. An ad hoc proposal shall specify a clear subject matter and concrete resolution items. Within two days of receiving the proposal, the convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the general meeting, announce the content of the ad hoc proposal, and submit the proposal to the general meeting for consideration. However, this does not apply if the extraordinary proposal violates laws, administrative regulations, or the Articles of Association, or if it falls outside the scope of the general meeting's authority. If, pursuant to the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's Shares are listed, the general meeting must be postponed due to the issuance of a supplementary notice, the meeting shall be postponed in accordance with the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's Shares are listed.

Submitting Inquiries to the Board of Directors

Shareholders may submit inquiries, requests, suggestions, and concerns to the Board in writing through the Company at any time. The Company generally does not process verbal or anonymous inquiries.

AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

During the period from the Listing Date through the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company has amended its Articles of Association. Details of these amendments are set forth in the circulars to Shareholders dated July 30, 2025, and December 2, 2025. The latest version of the Articles of Association is also available on the Company's website and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange's website.

Board Report

The Board is pleased to present this report and the Group's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

Adhering to the development strategy of "focusing on excellence and innovating for success", the Company has been dedicated to the R&D, promotion and adoption of thermal management technology, providing customers across the globe with energy-efficient solutions through its industry-leading products of high quality. Focusing on the R&D and application of heat pump technology and thermal management systems, the Company has been committed to developing environmental thermal management solutions that enable efficient heat exchange and intelligent temperature control. The Company has established a business that spans two major sectors: refrigeration and air-conditioning product components and automotive components. Leveraging its extensive technological expertise and innovation in R&D, the Company is broadening its business boundaries into emerging fields, such as bionic robot electromechanical actuators. There is no material change in the nature of the principal activities of the Group during the Reporting Period.

Further discussion and analysis of these activities as required by Schedule 5 to the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong), including the Group's discussion of major risks and uncertainties and the possible future development of the Group's business, are set out in "Management Discussion and Analysis" of this annual report.

PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Profits Distribution Policy

Principles for profit distribution

Profit distribution by the Company shall emphasize a reasonable return on investment for Shareholders. The profit distribution policy shall maintain consistency and stability. Profit distribution by the Company shall neither exceed the scope of the cumulative distributable profits, nor shall it harm the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Board, the Audit Committee and the general meeting of the Company shall give due consideration to the opinions of minority investors in decision-making and deliberation process of its profit distribution policy.

Form of profit distribution

The Company may distribute dividends in the form of cash, stocks, or a combination of both, or other methods permitted by laws and regulations. The Company shall prioritize the use of cash dividends for profit distribution. The Company shall adopt cash dividends for profit distribution provided that the conditions for cash distribution are satisfied. Where the Company distributes profit in the form of stock dividends, true and reasonable factors such as the growth of the Company and the dilution to net assets per share shall be taken into account.

Conditions for cash dividends

The Company records distributable profits (i.e. the remaining after-tax profits after covering the Company's losses and making allocations to the reserve) during the year, and there are sufficient cash flows so that payment of cash dividends would not affect the Company's subsequent continuing operation.

Board Report

Ratios and intervals for cash dividends

Subject to the principles of profit distribution and the above conditions for cash dividends, the Company shall, in principle, distribute cash dividends once a year. Within any three consecutive years, the cumulative profits distributed by the Company in cash shall not be less than 30% of the average distributable profits realized in the most recent three years. The specific dividend ratios shall be determined by the Board of the Company according to relevant regulations and the Company's operating conditions, and considered and resolved at the general meeting of the Company.

The Board confirms that during the Reporting Period, the Company strictly adhered to the profit distribution policy set forth in the Articles of Association when reviewing and implementing various profit distribution proposals. The basis and ratio of the dividend distribution were specific and clear, and the relevant decision-making procedure and system were sound. After being reviewed and approved, the profit distribution proposals were executed within the prescribed timeframe, thereby safeguarding the interests of all Shareholders. During the Reporting Period, the Company did not make any changes to its profit distribution policy.

Interim Dividend

The Board of the Company considered and approved the 2025 interim dividend plan on August 28, 2025, proposing to distribute a cash dividend of RMB1.20 (tax inclusive) for every 10 shares to all Shareholders. The cash dividend is denominated and declared in RMB, and will be paid to A Shareholders in RMB and to H Shareholders in HKD (the amount of interim dividend payable for every 10 Shares is HK$1.3214 (tax inclusive)).

Upon consideration and approval at the Company's extraordinary general meeting held on December 17, 2025, the Company distributed the 2025 interim dividend to all A Shareholders on January 15, 2026 and to all H Shareholders on February 10, 2026. The interim dividend was distributed to all Shareholders based on the share capital of 4,199,662,914 Shares, which is the total share capital of 4,208,013,935 Shares (of which the total A Share capital is 3,731,477,535 Shares and the total H Share capital is 476,536,400 Shares), after deducting 8,351,021 Shares already repurchased in the A Share repurchase special account.

Final Dividend

The 2025 annual profit distribution plan of the Company is proposed as follows: based on the total share capital of the Company on the record date for dividend distribution, the Company will distribute to A Shareholders and H Shareholders whose names appear on the register of members of the Company on the record date for the dividend distribution a cash dividend of RMB2.8 (tax inclusive) for every 10 ordinary Shares. The Company's A Shares in the Company's designated securities account for repurchase are not entitled to dividend distribution. As at the date of this annual report, the Company's total share capital is 4,208,013,935 Shares, after deducting its 8,351,021 A Shares in the special account for repurchase, the total amount of cash dividends to be distributed is approximately RMB1,175.9 million, accounting for 28.9% of the net profit attributable to the owners of the parent company in the 2025 consolidated statements.

The proposed final dividend shall be denominated and declared in RMB, and paid in RMB to A Shareholders and in Hong Kong dollars to H Shareholders. The actual amounts of distribution in Hong Kong dollars will be calculated based on the average benchmark exchange rates of RMB to Hong Kong dollars published by the People's Bank of China for the five working days prior to the date of the Company's 2025 annual general meeting.

Board Report

The 2025 annual profit distribution plan is subject to approval by the Shareholders of the Company at the annual general meeting. The Company will disclose in due course, among other things, further details regarding the expected timetable and arrangement for closure of register of H Shareholders in respect of the proposed payment of final dividend for the purpose of ascertaining Shareholders' entitlement to the payment of final dividend by the Company.

There is no arrangement under which any Shareholder waived or agreed to waive any dividend during the Reporting Period.

Individual Income Tax

In accordance with the provisions of the Notice of the State Administration of Taxation on Individual Income Tax Collection Issues Following the Repeal of the Document with the Number of Guo Shui Fa 1993 No. 045 (Guo Shui Han 2011 No. 348) (《國家稅務總局關於國稅發[1993]045號文件廢止後有關個人所得稅徵管問題的通知》(國稅函[2011]348號)), withholding and remitting obligor will withhold and remit individual income tax as per item of “interest, dividends and bonus income” for dividends and bonuses income of overseas resident individual shareholders from the domestic non-foreign-funded enterprises by issuing shares in Hong Kong. When the domestic non-foreign-funded enterprise issues shares in Hong Kong, its overseas resident individual shareholders will enjoy relevant tax preference in accordance with the tax convention signed by China and the country stated in the residential identity and tax arrangement of Mainland China and Hong Kong (Macau). In general, the tax rate for dividend is 10% in accordance with relevant tax convention and provisions on tax arrangement. To simplify tax collection and management, when a domestic non-foreign funded enterprise that has issued shares in Hong Kong distributes dividends and bonuses, individual income tax will be generally withheld and remitted at the tax rate of 10% and application is not necessary. If the tax rate for dividends is not fall within 10%, the following provisions shall apply: (1) for residents from countries which have entered into tax treaties with a tax rate of lower than 10%, the withholding agents will file applications on their behalf to seek entitlement of the relevant agreed preferential treatments, and upon approval by the competent tax authorities, the excess tax amounts withheld will be refunded; (2) for residents from countries which have entered into tax treaties with a tax rate of higher than 10% but lower than 20%, the withholding agents will withhold the individual income tax at the effective tax rate under the treaties when distributing dividends without application; (3) for residents from countries without tax treaties or otherwise, the withholding agents will withhold the individual income tax at a tax rate of 20% when distributing dividends.

For dividends received by mainland individual investors from investing in H shares of the Company, the Company will withhold and pay individual income tax payable by such mainland individual investors at the rate of 20% on their behalf.

Enterprise Income Tax

In accordance with the provisions of the Notice on Relevant Issues that PRC Resident Enterprises Distribute Dividends to Overseas Non-resident Enterprise Shareholders of H shares and Withhold and Remit Enterprise Income Tax (Guo Shui Han 2008 No. 897) (《關於中國居民企業向境外H股非居民企業股東派發股息代扣代繳企業所得稅有關問題的通知》(國稅函[2008]897號)), when PRC resident enterprises distribute dividends for 2008 and future years to overseas non-resident enterprise shareholders of H shares, they will withhold and remit enterprise income tax at the tax rate of 10%. Upon receipt of such dividends, an overseas non-PRC resident enterprise shareholder may apply to the competent tax authorities for relevant treatment under the tax treaties (arrangements) in person or through a proxy or a withholding agent and provide evidence in support of its status as a beneficial owner as defined in the tax treaties (arrangements). Upon verification by the competent tax authorities, the difference between the tax levied and the amount of tax payable as calculated at the tax rate under the tax treaties (arrangements) will be refunded.

Board Report

A SHARE INCENTIVE SCHEMES

The Company currently has two types of A Share incentive schemes, namely the restricted share incentive schemes (the “Restricted Share Incentive Schemes”) and the stock appreciation right incentive plans (the “Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans”).

(I) Restricted Share Incentive Schemes

During the Reporting Period, the Company’s existing Restricted Share Incentive Schemes included the 2022 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme and the 2024 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme. The terms of Restricted Share Incentive Schemes are not subject to the provisions of Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules as they do not involve any grant of restricted Shares by the Company after the listing. Save as otherwise disclosed, the terms of each of the Restricted Share Incentive Schemes are substantially similar and are summarized below.

1. Purpose

The purpose of the Restricted Share Incentive Schemes is to improve the Group’s corporate governance structure, establish and enhance the long-term incentive mechanism of the Company, attract and retain talents, and incentivize the Directors, senior management and other key employees to achieve a sustained and healthy development of the Group in order to realize the Group’s long-term objectives. The Restricted Share Incentive Schemes are implemented under the premise of protecting Shareholders’ interests and with a principle of evaluating the benefits according to contribution.

2. Participants

The participants of the Restricted Share Incentive Schemes include Directors, senior management and other key personnel of the Group who have significant contributions to the business operation and development of the Group. The scope of participants excludes independent directors, supervisors and Shareholders or actual controller who individually or collectively hold 5% or more of the shares of the Company and their spouse, parents and children.

3. Source and maximum number of Shares

The Shares underlying the Restricted Share Incentive Schemes are A Shares purchased by the Company from the secondary market. The maximum number of restricted Shares that can be granted under each of the Restricted Shares Incentive Schemes and their respective percentage of the issued Shares (excluding treasury shares) as of the date of the annual report are as follows:

Restricted Share Incentive Scheme	Maximum number of restricted Shares that can be granted and their respective percentage of the issued Shares (excluding treasury shares) as of the date of the annual report
2022 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme	17,585,000 (0.42%)
2024 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme	24,910,000 (0.59%)

Board Report

As of January 1, 2025 and December 31, 2025, the number of restricted Shares that can be granted under the 2022 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme and the 2024 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme was 0. During the Reporting Period, no restricted A Shares were granted under the 2022 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme or the 2024 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme.

4. Maximum entitlement of participants

The aggregate number of Shares of the Company granted to any participant through all Restricted Share Incentive Schemes within the validity period shall not exceed 1% of the total share capital of the Company.

5. Date of grant and term of the Scheme

The date on which the restricted Shares are granted shall be determined by the Board within 60 days after the date of approval of the Restricted Share Incentive Schemes by the general meeting. The grant of restricted Shares shall be approved by the Board, registered and announced within 60 days after the approval of the Restricted Share Incentive Schemes by the general meeting. The Restricted Share Incentive Schemes shall be effective from the date of completion of the grant of restricted Shares under the Schemes up to the date when the restricted Shares granted under the Schemes are no longer under any lock-ups or have been repurchased and canceled, provided that the term of the Schemes shall not each exceed 48 months.

6. Sale restriction and vesting arrangements

The Restricted Share Incentive Schemes shall be effective from the date of completion of the grant of restricted Shares under the Schemes up to the date when the restricted Shares granted under the Schemes are no longer under any lock-ups or have been repurchased and cancelled, provided that the term of the Schemes shall not each exceed 48 months. The lock-up period for restricted Shares commences from date of grant of restricted Shares to the grantee. The lock-up periods of the restricted Shares are divided into three schedules: 12 months, 24 months and 36 months. During the lock-up period, the restricted Shares granted to the grantee shall not be transferred, used as guarantee or for repayment of debt. The restricted Shares may only be unlocked upon fulfilment of the conditions set out in the schemes. The vesting arrangements of the restricted Shares are as follows:

- (a) unlocked in tranche of 30% during one of the three unlocking periods that occur between the first trading date after the 12-month anniversary from the date of grant and the last trading day up to the 24-month anniversary of the date of grant;
- (b) unlocked in tranche of 30% during one of the three unlocking periods that occur between the first trading date after the 24-month anniversary from the date of grant and the last trading day up to the 36-month anniversary of the date of grant;

Board Report

(II) Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans

During the Reporting Period, the Company's existing Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans included the 2022 Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plan and the 2024 Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plan. Given the Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans do not involve the issue of new Shares by the Company and are not funded by any existing Shares, the terms of the Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans are not subject to the provisions of Chapter 17 of the Listing Rules.

1. Purpose

The Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans aim to complement the effective implementation of the Company's Restricted Share Incentive Schemes, further establish and improve the Company's long-term incentive mechanism, attract and retain outstanding talents, effectively motivate core talents working overseas, and promote steady and rapid improvement in the Company's operating performance. The Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans are implemented under the premise of protecting Shareholders' interests and with a principle of evaluating the benefits according to contribution.

2. Participants

The participants of the Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans include foreign core talents who play an important role in the future operation and development of the Company, as well as Chinese core talents who have employment or labor relations with the Company or its branches and subsidiaries and work overseas. The scope of participants excludes independent directors, Supervisors and Shareholders or actual controller who individually or collectively hold 5% or more of the shares of the Company and their spouse, parents and children. All participants must be engaged or have entered into employment contracts with the Group when the stock appreciation rights were granted and during the appraisal period.

Board Report

4. Maximum entitlement of participants

The aggregate number of Shares of the Company granted to any participant through all Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans within the validity period shall not exceed 1% of the total share capital of the Company.

5. Source of Shares and participants' interest

The Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans do not involve actual Shares of the Company. Instead, they anchor at the Shares as virtual stock targets.

6. Term

Each Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plan is valid from the date of completion of the grant of stock appreciation rights under the Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans up to the date when all the stock appreciation rights are vested or deregistered, provided that the term of each Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans shall not exceed 48 months.

Board Report

7. Waiting period and exercising period of the stock appreciation rights

The stock appreciation rights held by the Stock Appreciation Right Incentive Plans are subject to a waiting period of 12 months, commencing from date of grant of the stock appreciation rights and the date when the rights can be vested. After the waiting period, subject to the exercising of rights during 12 months, 24 months, and 36 months, respectively, and the attainment of performance targets and personal evaluation, the participants' entitlement to the corresponding portion of the stock appreciation rights will be exercised in three tranches in the proportion of 30%, 30% and 40% respectively. Upon vesting, the Company will pay for each stock appreciation right the difference between the price of each Share of the day of vesting and the vesting price.

8. Changes in the number of stock appreciation rights during the Reporting Period

EMPLOYEE INFORMATION

Relationships with Employees

Adhering to employee-centered core values, the Group focuses on improving the working environment for employees, realizing their personal value, improving their quality of life and promoting their career growth, which are also important parts of the Group's development strategy. The Group treats employees as the Group's core assets and strives to enhance the morale and cohesion of the Group. In addition, the Group aims to create a healthy, positive, and cooperative working environment. The Group takes care of employees through "Sanhua Family" fund to help the employees facing financial difficulties.

Number of Employees

As at December 31, 2025, the Group had 19,090 full-time employees worldwide. Total remuneration of employees amounted to RMB5,323.5 million. The table below sets forth a breakdown of employees by professional category as of December 31, 2025:

Professional category	Number of employees (persons)
Production personnel	12,441
Sales personnel	719
Technical personnel	3,671
Finance personnel	454
Administration personnel	1,805
Total	19,090

Remuneration Policy

The company has established a remuneration and incentive system that is closely aligned with its business development and human resources strategies. Based on market remuneration levels and a job valuation system, as well as taking into account employee capabilities and performance outcomes, the Company has established a comprehensive remuneration system structured on base salary, benefits, bonuses, and long-term incentives, along with supporting management systems. Through a scientific value assessment and feedback mechanism, this system effectively motivates employees to continuously create value, thereby providing internal momentum for the Company's high-quality development.

Board Report

The Company conducts regular remuneration reviews and market salary surveys to ensure that its overall remuneration levels remain competitive. Additionally, the Company conducts evaluations each year for rewards such as the research and development achievement award, quality achievement award, management achievement award, patent award, cost reduction in procurement award, lean improvement award, and value contribution award. These initiatives effectively incentivize talent to actively innovate and create value, thereby driving the Company's high-quality development. In 2018, the Company launched its first equity incentive plan; in 2020, the second restricted equity incentive plan; in 2022, the third equity incentive plan; and in 2024, the fourth equity incentive plan. These plans have played a crucial role in motivating and retaining the Company's core and key talent, thereby laying a solid talent foundation for the Company's sustained development.

Training Programs

In line with the 2021–2025 development plan, the Company has implemented a talent strategy that “prioritizes internal development, with moderate external recruitment”. The TDR (Talent Development Review) assessment serves as a long-term mechanism for realizing the “Talent of Sanhua” initiative, facilitating the alignment of strategy, business operations, organizational structure, and talent development. Through multi-level assessments, the Company identifies high-potential talent, standardizes management terminology, and develops retention and development plans for key personnel, thereby ensuring talent development meets the needs of the Company's strategic growth.

Integrating the TDR assessment, the Company has established a corporate talent development system focused on leadership development, professional development, and new hire training. Through “Hang” series of leadership development, the Company progressively enhances the comprehensive management capabilities of its managerial cadres and high-potential management trainees. Through the professional development, covering finance, HRBP (Human Resources Business Partner), IT, and other initiatives, the Company builds a professional talent pipeline of the Group. Through the new hire training, including management trainee and campus recruitment programs, the Company cultivates outstanding high-potential talent for the Company in the future.

At the same time, the Company strengthens foundational infrastructure, continuously introduces learning technologies, certify internal instructors, develops internal course resources, and builds an internal learning platform of the Company. By leveraging the “five forces” mechanism, namely, traction (cultural traction), internal drive (growth-driven), external momentum (instructor-driven), support (resource-based support), and organizational learning (learning-oriented organizational building), the Company promotes self-directed learning among all employees and the transformation and upgrading of talent, thereby enhancing the global competitiveness of both the organization and talent.

Board Report

CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group entered into the following partially-exempt connected transactions, which are required to be disclosed in this annual report pursuant to Rule 14A.71 of the Listing Rules:

The Company (on behalf of the Group) and Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group) entered into the Provision of Products Framework Agreement and the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement on June 10, 2025. The parties renewed the agreements and entered into the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement and the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement on December 17, 2025.

Sanhua Holding is a member of the Company's Controlling Shareholders Group and a connected person of the Company. Therefore, transactions contemplated under the Provision of Products Framework Agreement, the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement, the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement and the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company pursuant to Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

Provision of Products Framework Agreement

On June 10, 2025, the Company (on behalf of the Group) and Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group) entered into the Provision of Products Framework Agreement, pursuant to which, the Group will supply to Sanhua Holding Group manufactured products including but not limited to power, filters, molds, valve products, heat exchangers and home appliances (the "Component Products"). The filters, molds, valve products, heat exchangers are procured by Sanhua Holding Group to manufacture products including pneumatic solenoid valves and textile machine solenoid valves, as well as their assemblies.

The term of the Provision of Products Framework Agreement commenced on the Listing Date and ended on December 31, 2025. Both parties or their respective subsidiaries will enter into separate underlying agreements which will set out the specific terms and conditions according to the principles provided in the Provision of Products Framework Agreement.

Board Report

Pricing Policy

The amount to be paid by Sanhua Holding Group to the Group under the Provision of Products Framework Agreement generally adopt a cost-plus method and will be determined through fair negotiations, taking into account the factors including (i) the market price of the relevant products; (ii) the costs and profit margins of the Group; and (iii) the prices offered by the Group to other customers purchasing similar products.

Annual Caps and Basis of Determination

The annual caps for the transaction amounts to be paid to the Group by Sanhua Holding Group and its associates under the Provision of Products Framework Agreement is RMB70.79 million. The annual caps are determined based on:

- (1) the historical amounts of the transactions between the Group and Sanhua Holding Group for the three years ended December 31, 2024 in respect of the provision of such products;
- (2) the existing orders the Group has at hand that reflect a strong customer demand and the expected increasing demand of Sanhua Holding Group for such products, considering the business expansion of Sanhua Holding Group in 2025. As of March 31, 2025, the transaction amount with Sanhua Holding Group for the Group's product sales totaled RMB9.99 million. Due to anticipated seasonal fluctuations in both purchase quantities and pricing, the Group expects increased sales in the subsequent quarters of 2025; and
- (3) other factors including but not limited to the expected market price of the similar products on normal commercial terms.

In addition, based the Group's ongoing collaboration and negotiations with Sanhua Holding Group, the Group has gained insights into their latest market analysis and business development strategies, based on which Sanhua Holding Group foresees an increase in the demand for the Company's products (mainly as components of the products of Sanhua Holding Group). This anticipated growth in business volume indicates an increase in demand on the Group's products to meet their evolving needs.

Reasons for and Benefits of Entering into the Provision of Products Framework Agreement

For the three years ended December 31, 2024, the Group has supplied the Component Products to Sanhua Holding Group and the Group expects that it will continue to provide the products after the Listing. The Group has a long-term and stable business relationship with Sanhua Holding Group. Sanhua Holding Group is familiar with the products the Group manufactured and procures these products for its research and development, testing and employee benefits purposes. The Group is not and will not be bound to collaborate with Sanhua Holding Group, and the Group will only manufacture and provide the required products to Sanhua Holding Group if the Group considers it is in the interests of the Company and Shareholders as a whole. Such cooperation with Sanhua Holding Group not only brings the Group additional sales but also the opportunities to expand its reach and further promote the Group's offerings.

Board Report

Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement

On June 10, 2025, the Company (on behalf of the Group) and Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group) entered into the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement, pursuant to which, the Group will procure various materials, powers and supplies from relevant members of Sanhua Holding Group (“Products Providers”).

The term of the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement commenced on the Listing Date and ended on December 31, 2025. Both parties or their respective subsidiaries will enter into separate underlying agreements which will set out the specific terms and conditions for the procurement of materials and powers according to the principles provided in the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement.

Pricing Policy

The amount to be paid by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group under the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement generally adopt a cost-plus method and will be determined through fair negotiations, taking into account the factors including the type of materials and the transaction volume and the prices at which the Group procures similar materials of the same nature, type, and quantity from other independent third parties.

Annual Caps and Basis of Determination

The annual caps for the transaction amounts to be paid by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group under the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement is RMB107.37 million. The annual caps are determined based on:

- (1) the historical amounts of the transactions between the Group and Sanhua Holding Group for the three years ended December 31, 2024 in respect of the procurement of the above materials;
- (2) the existing orders the Group made and the expected demand of the Group for such materials and powers due to the Group’s plan for business expansion, increasing market opportunities and consumer spending. As of March 31, 2025, the transaction amount with Sanhua Holding Group for the Group’s procurement of materials and power totaled RMB17.38 million. Due to anticipated seasonal fluctuations in both purchase quantities and pricing, the Group expects increased procurement in the subsequent quarters of 2025; and
- (3) other factors including but not limited to the expected market price of such materials and the expected market trend.

In addition, based on the Group’s recent business development outlook, the Group anticipates an increased need to procure materials and powers from Sanhua Holding Group to support the Group’s own business growth. This projection also takes into account the volume and value of existing orders the Group has from some of its customers. To ensure the Group can promptly seize market opportunities and fulfill customers’ orders, the Group has agreed with Sanhua Holding Group on a higher annual cap to secure a stable supply of materials and energy as compared to historical transaction amount.

Board Report

Reasons for and Benefits of Entering into the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement

The Group has been purchasing such materials and powers from the Products Providers for the three years ended December 31, 2024 in the ordinary and usual course of business. The Group and Sanhua Holding Group has established a long-term and stable business relationship, and these Products Providers have acquired a comprehensive understanding of the Group's business and operational requirements of the materials and powers that the Group needs. In relation to procurement of powers, the Group has leased several properties from Sanhua Holding Group for manufacturing and production, according to local governmental regulations on public utilities supply, the powers the Group used for manufacturing and production, including electricity, water and gas, to be used by the Group will be recorded under Sanhua Holding Group's account registered with the local power providers, the Group therefore needs to pay for these powers through Sanhua Holding Group.

2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement

As the Provision of Products Framework Agreement expired on December 31, 2025, and the Company expects such transactions to continue thereafter, on December 17, 2025, the Company (on behalf of the Group) and Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group) renewed the agreement and entered into the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement, in relation to the supply of manufactured products by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group. The Group will supply Sanhua Holding Group with Component Products. The filters, molds, valve products, and heat exchangers are procured by Sanhua Holding Group to manufacture products including pneumatic solenoid valves and textile machine solenoid valves, as well as their assemblies.

Pricing Policy

The amount to be paid by Sanhua Holding Group to the Group under the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement generally adopt a cost-plus method. The costs are mainly determined, after arm's length negotiation between the parties, on the basis of the raw material costs and additional costs, including fees in relation to depreciation, auxiliary materials, and labour costs. Profits are mainly determined based on reasonable profit margins and are ultimately determined based on the arm's length negotiations between the parties in accordance with normal commercial terms. Based on historical transactions, the profit margin for such products generally ranges from 10% to 35%, depending on factors such as product type and procurement scale. The Company will also take into account the prices offered by the Group to at least two other comparable customers for the purchase of similar products to the extent practicable. In addition, the Group will implement internal control measures to ensure that the pricing of the continuing connected transactions is fair and reasonable.

Historical Amounts

The amounts of fees paid by Sanhua Holding Group to the Group under the Provision of Products Framework Agreement for the year ended December 31, 2025 was approximately RMB42.30 million.

Board Report

Annual Caps and Basis of Determination

It is estimated that the maximum aggregate amount of fees to be paid by Sanhua Holding Group to the Group under the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement will not exceed RMB84.00 million for the year ending December 31, 2026.

The aforementioned annual cap was determined by the Directors after considering the following factors: (i) historical transaction amounts for the eleven months ended November 30, 2025; (ii) the estimated scale of potential cooperation under current negotiations, where Sanhua Holding Group intends to procure the Component Products from the Group in 2026. Sanhua Holding Group's demand for the Group's Component Products is expected to increase in 2026 due to its business expansion; (iii) the procurement of refrigeration-related components by Sanhua Holding Group from the Group commenced in 2025, with the Group expected to supply at scale in 2026. The transaction amounts for such products are expected to increase by approximately RMB20.0 million to RMB30.0 million in 2026; and (iv) an approximate 5% buffer set for price changes of related products and potential market fluctuations.

Reasons for and Benefits of Entering into the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement

The Group maintains a long-term and stable business relationship with Sanhua Holding Group. Sanhua Holding Group is familiar with the products the Group manufactured and procures these products for its research and development, testing and employee benefits purposes. The Group is not and will not be bound to collaborate with Sanhua Holding Group, and the Group will only manufacture and provide the required products to Sanhua Holding Group if the Company considers such cooperation to be in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole. Such cooperation with Sanhua Holding Group not only brings the Group additional sales but also the opportunities to expand the Group's reach and further promote offerings of the Group. Sanhua Holding Group possesses a thorough understanding of the Group's product type, product quality, and cooperation model. Continuing this partnership is cost-effective and mutually beneficial for both parties.

2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement

As the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement expired on December 31, 2025, and the Company expects such transactions to continue thereafter, on December 17, 2025, the Company (on behalf of the Group) and Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group) renewed the agreement and entered into the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement, in relation to procurement of various materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group by the Group.

Pricing Policy

The amount to be paid by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group under the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement shall be determined by commercial negotiation between the parties according to the principles of fairness and reasonableness, taking into account the factors including but not limited to the type of materials, transaction volume and the prices for the procurement of similar materials of the same nature, type and quantity by the Group from other Independent Third Parties. To ensure that the prices are fair, reasonable, and consistent with the prevailing market, the Group will obtain quotations from independent third-party sellers (at least two in principle) who provide the same or similar products. These quotations will be compared with those of Sanhua Holding Group, and the Group will only accept Sanhua Holding Group's quotations if they are no less favorable than those of independent third-party sellers. In addition, the Group will implement internal control measures to ensure that the pricing of the continuing connected transactions is fair and reasonable.

Board Report

Historical Amounts

The amounts of fees paid by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group under the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement for the year ended December 31, 2025 was approximately RMB58.57 million.

Annual Caps and Basis of Determination

It is estimated that the maximum aggregate amount of fees to be paid by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group under the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement will not exceed RMB108.00 million for the year ending December 31, 2026. The aforementioned annual cap was determined by the Directors after considering the following factors: (i) historical transaction amounts for the eleven months ended November 30, 2025; (ii) the volume and value of existing orders the Group has from certain of its customers; (iii) the Company's expected growth in business scale in 2026, attributable to the Group's business expansion plans; (iv) the estimated transaction volumes for materials, power and supplies procurement following the implementation of the Group's 2026 sales plan, which is prepared according to annual production forecasts and production plans for each business unit; (v) the close cooperation between both parties since Sanhua Holding Group began supplying materials, power and supplies to the Group, with the expectation that the Group's demand for materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group will further increase in the future; and (vi) an approximate 5% buffer set for price changes of related materials and potential market fluctuations.

Reasons for and Benefits of Entering into the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement

The Group has been purchasing materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group over the years in the ordinary and usual course of business. The Group and Sanhua Holding Group has established a long-term and stable business relationship, and Sanhua Holding Group has acquired a comprehensive understanding of the Group's business and operational requirements of the materials, power and supplies. Therefore, the Company believes it is in the best interest of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole to continue to procure such materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group who is capable of fulfilling the Group's demands with a stable and high-quality supply of materials, power and supplies on terms which are similar to or better than those offered by Independent Third Parties.

For further details regarding the aforementioned connected transactions, please refer to the Company's Prospectus and the announcement dated December 17, 2025.

Board Report

Review of Continuing Connected Transactions

The Company's auditor was engaged to conduct audit work in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Assurance Engagements 3000 "Assurance Engagements Other Than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information" issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and with reference to Practice Note 740 "Auditor's Letter on Continuing Connected Transactions under the Hong Kong Listing Rules" issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Pursuant to Rule 14A.56 of the Listing Rules, the auditor has issued a letter to the Board that nothing has come to their attention that causes them to believe that the continuing connected transactions disclosed by the Group (except those transactions which are fully exempted pursuant to Rule 14A.76(1) of the Listing Rules):

1. have not been approved by the Board;
2. were not, in all material respects, in accordance with the pricing policies of the Group if the transactions involve the provision of goods or services by the Group;
3. were not entered into, in all material respects, in accordance with the relevant agreement governing the transactions; and
4. have exceeded the relevant annual caps set by the Company.

The independent non-executive Directors of the Company confirm that the transactions have been entered into by the Group in the ordinary and usual course of its business, on normal commercial terms or better and in accordance with the agreement governing them on terms that are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Shareholders as a whole.

These connected transactions have complied with the requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules. Except as disclosed above, the related party transactions set out in Note 38 to the consolidated financial statements do not constitute connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

MANAGEMENT CONTRACTS

No contracts concerning the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of the business of the Company were entered into or existed during the Relevant Period.

CONTRACTS AND RELATIONSHIPS WITH CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

During the Reporting Period, other than the continuing connected transactions as disclosed, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries entered into any material contracts with the controlling shareholders or their subsidiaries, nor were there any material contracts under which the controlling shareholders or their subsidiaries provided services to the Company or its subsidiaries.

Board Report

NON-COMPETITION UNDERTAKING BY CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

On September 18, 2017, Mr. Zhang Yabo, Mr. Zhang Daocai, Mr. Zhang Shaobo and Sanhua Holding, together with Sanhua Green Energy, a substantial shareholder of the Company, each provided a long-term non-compete undertaking to the Company. For details regarding the non-competition undertaking, please refer to the Prospectus dated June 13, 2025.

The independent non-executive Directors of the Company have reviewed the compliance and implementation of the non-competition undertakings and confirmed that all such undertakings have been complied with during the Reporting Period.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee and the auditor have reviewed the audited consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended December 31, 2025. The Audit Committee has also reviewed the accounting standards and practices adopted by the Group and discussed the auditing, risk management, internal control, and financial reporting matters.

AUDITOR

For details regarding the Company's auditors, please refer to the section headed "Remuneration of External Auditor and Auditor" in the "Corporate Governance Report" of this report.

STATUS OF THE POTENTIAL SPIN-OFF

As disclosed in the Prospectus, considering, amongst others, the market conditions, financing needs and development of the subsidiaries and business, the Company retains the possibility to spin off certain business of the Group, such as the controllers business (the "Potential Spin-off"). The Company has obtained from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and the Stock Exchange has granted, a waiver from strict compliance with the three-year restriction requirement under paragraph 3(b) of Practice Note 15 in relation to the Potential Spin-off of the controller business of the Group. The Potential Spin-off will remain subject to other requirements of Practice Note 15.

As of the date of the Latest Practicable Date, the Company does not have any detailed plan in relation to the Potential Spin-off, including the timetable, the listing venue and the entity to be spun off. The Company will comply with the applicable rules and regulations, and announce the details of the Potential Spin-off, if any, in accordance with the rules and regulations, when it becomes available. Notwithstanding the above, whether or when to proceed with the Potential Spin-off, depends on various factors such as market conditions, the regulatory approval procedure, and the financial performance and valuation of business segments. The Potential Spin-off remains highly uncertain and could be subject to material changes in the future.

EVENTS AFTER THE REPORTING PERIOD

There are no other material events after the Reporting Period undertaken by the Group after December 31, 2025 and up to the date of this report.

To the members of Zhejiang Sanhua Intelligent Controls Co., Ltd.

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Zhejiang Sanhua Intelligent Controls Co., Ltd. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 94 to 208, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at December 31, 2025, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2025, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKASAs") as issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), as applicable to audits of the financial statements of public interest entities. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independent Auditor's Report

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Revenue recognition We refer to Note 8 to the consolidated financial statements and accounting policies in Note 4 to the consolidated financial statements. During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group recognized revenue primarily from the sale of refrigeration and air-conditioning product components and automotive components amounting to approximately RMB30,985,466,000. We identified revenue recognition as a key audit matter because revenue is one of a key performance measurement and therefore there is an inherent risk that the management of the Company could inappropriately recognize revenue to achieve specific targets or expectations.	Our audit procedures to assess revenue recognition included: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Evaluating the design and implementation of internal controls and testing their operating effectiveness over revenue recognition;• Inspecting customer contracts, on a sampling basis, to identify terms and conditions relating to the transfer of control over the products sold and assessing the Group's timing of revenue recognition with reference to the requirements of prevailing accounting standards and testing their operating effectiveness and consistency;• Performing analytical procedures to identify any significant or unusual fluctuations in revenue during the reporting period and investigating the reasons for such fluctuations with management of the Company and assessing the reasonableness of the findings with supporting evidences;• Conducting test of details, on a sampling basis, to review supporting evidences related to revenue recognition, including sales contracts, sales invoices, settlement records, delivery documents and reconciliation of settlement vouchers;• Obtaining electronic port information and comparing them with the export sales register;

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Completeness and valuation of derivative financial instruments

We refer to Notes 10 and 26 to the consolidated financial statements and accounting policies in Note 4 to the consolidated financial statements.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group engaged in trading of derivative financial instruments, including forward contracts, options and future contracts, via both exchange-traded and over-the-counter markets. The Group recorded a fair value gain on derivative financial instruments and a net loss on disposal of derivative financial instruments of approximately RMB82,195,000 and RMB29,775,000 respectively.

We identified the completeness and valuation of derivative financial instruments as a key audit matter because of their complexity and leverage impacts. There is a risk of misstatement arising from incomplete books and records and the application of inappropriate valuation methodologies.

- Sending audit confirmation letters of trade receivables, on a sampling basis, to verify the sales amounts of certain customers;
- Performing customer background search and evaluating the appropriateness of their commercial rationale; and
- Conducting cut-off testing to verify that revenue was recognized in the proper accounting period.

Our audit procedures to assess the completeness and valuation of derivative financial instruments included:

- Obtaining understanding of the economic and business objective on trading of derivative financial instruments;
- Strengthening the implementation of substantive procedures and expanding the scope of substantive testing;
- Inspecting the supporting documents related to purchases, sales, settlements and holdings of the derivative financial instruments;
- Sending audit confirmation letters to financial institutions and counterparties to verify the existence of the derivative financial instruments;
- Obtaining publicly available market quotes or valuation reports issued by independence third party, and examine the reliability of valuation and validity of the accounting treatments; and
- Analyzing the effectiveness of hedge, and assessing the compliance, reasonableness and reliability of the accounting information of the selected accounting treatments.

Independent Auditor's Report

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the IASB and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors of the Company determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Independent Auditor's Report

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors of the Company.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Company's directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

Independent Auditor's Report

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO IFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Amendments to an IFRS Accounting Standards that are mandatorily effective for the current year

In the current year, the Group has applied the following amendments to an IFRS Accounting Standard as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the Group’s annual period beginning on January 1, 2025 for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Amendments to IAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability
----------------------	-------------------------

The application of the amendments to an IFRS Accounting Standard in the current year has had no material impact on the Group’s financial positions and performance for the current and prior year and/or on the disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

New and amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards in issue but not yet effective

The Group has not early applied the following new and amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards that have been issued but are not yet effective:

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7	Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments ²
Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7	Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity ²
Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture ¹
Amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards	Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11 ²
IFRS 18	Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements ³
Amendments to IAS 21	Translation to a Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency ³

¹ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after a date to be determined.

² Effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2026.

³ Effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2027.

Except for the new IFRS Accounting Standard mentioned below, the directors of the Company anticipate that the application of all other amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards will have no material impact on the consolidated financial statements in the foreseeable future.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO IFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS (continued)

IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements, which set out requirements on presentation and disclosures in financial statements, will replace IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements. This new IFRS Accounting Standard, while carrying forward many of the requirements in IAS 1, introduces new requirements to present specified categories and defined subtotals in the statement of profit or loss; provide disclosures on management-defined performance measures in the notes to the financial statements and improve aggregation and disaggregation of information to be disclosed in the financial statements. In addition, some IAS 1 paragraphs have been moved to IAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors and IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures. Minor amendments to IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows and IAS 33 Earnings per Share are also made.

IFRS 18, and amendments to other standards, will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2027, with early application permitted. IFRS 18 requires retrospective application with specific transition provision. The application of the new standard is not expected to have significant impact on the financial performance and position of the Group in terms of recognition and measurement. However, it is expected to affect the structure and presentation of the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATION FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the IASB. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“Listing Rules”) and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities (including structured entities) controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

When the Group has less than a majority of the voting rights of an investee, it has power over the investee when the voting rights are sufficient to give it the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee unilaterally. The Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether or not the Group's voting rights in an investee are sufficient to give it power, including:

- the size of the Group's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of holdings of the other vote holders;
- potential voting rights held by the Group, other vote holders or other parties;
- rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- any additional facts and circumstances that indicate that the Group has, or does not have, the current ability to direct the relevant activities at the time that decisions need to be made, including voting patterns at previous shareholders' meetings.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Company obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Company loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated statement of comprehensive income from the date the Company gains control until the date when the Company ceases to control the subsidiary.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended December 31, 2025

Basis of consolidation (continued)

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies into line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Non-controlling interests in subsidiaries are presented separately from the Group's equity therein, which represent present ownership interests entitling their holders to a proportionate share of net assets of the relevant subsidiaries upon liquidation.

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries

Changes in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries that do not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Group's relevant components of equity and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiaries, including re-attribution of relevant reserves between the Group and the non-controlling interests according to the Group's and the non-controlling interests' proportionate interests.

Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted, and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognized directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, the assets and liabilities of that subsidiary and non-controlling interests (if any) are derecognized. A gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss and is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest and (ii) the carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), and liabilities of the subsidiary attributable to the owners of the Company. All amounts previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities of the subsidiary. The fair value of any investment retained in the former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition for subsequent accounting under IFRS 9 or, when applicable, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (continued)

Business combinations

(i) Business combination not under common controls

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for all business combinations (except for the business combinations under common controls), regardless of whether equity instruments or other assets are acquired. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the:

- fair values of the assets transferred;
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired business;
- equity interests issued by the Group;
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement; and
- fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are, with limited exceptions, measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognizes any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the consideration transferred, amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and acquisition date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognized directly in profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions. Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or a financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value, with changes in fair value recognized in profit or loss.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(ii) Business combination under common controls

An acquisition of a business which is a business combination under common control is accounted for in a manner similar to a uniting of interests whereby the assets and liabilities acquired are accounted for at carryover predecessor values to the other party to the business combination with all periods presented as if the operations of the Group and the business acquired have always been combined. The difference between the consideration paid by the Group and the net assets or liabilities of the business acquired is adjusted against equity.

Investments in associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates are incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. The financial statements of associates used for equity accounting purposes are prepared using uniform accounting policies as those of the Group like transactions and events in similar circumstances, unless allowed by other standards. Under the equity method, an investment in an associate is initially recognized in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognize the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the associate. When the Group's share of losses of an associate exceeds the Group's interest in that associate (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associate), the Group discontinues recognizing its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognized only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

An investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate. On acquisition of the investment in an associate, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is recognized as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognized immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The Group assesses whether there is objective evidence that the interest in an associate may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with IAS 36 Impairment of Assets as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognized is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognized in accordance with IAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

When the Group ceases to have significant influence over an associate, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in the investee with a resulting gain or loss being recognized in profit or loss. When the Group retains an interest in the former associate and the retained interest is a financial asset within the scope of IFRS 9, the Group measures the retained interest at fair value at that date and the fair value is regarded as its fair value on initial recognition. The difference between the carrying amount of the associate and the fair value of any retained interest and any proceeds from disposing the relevant interest in the associate is included in the determination of the gain or loss on disposal of the associate. In addition, the Group accounts for all amounts previously recognized in other comprehensive income in relation to that associate on the same basis as would be required if that associate had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. Therefore, if a gain or loss previously recognized in other comprehensive income by that associate would be reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities, the Group reclassifies the gain or loss from equity to profit or loss (as a reclassification adjustment) upon disposal/partial disposal of the relevant associate.

When a group entity transacts with an associate of the Group, profits and losses resulting from the transactions with the associate are recognized in the Group's consolidated financial statements only to the extent of interests in the associate that are not related to the Group.

The investments in associates are stated at cost less impairment in the Company's statement of financial position. The results of associates are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividends received and receivable.

Changes in the Group's interests in associates

When the Group reduces its ownership interests in an associate but the Group continues to use the equity method (including situations that change of ownership interest in an associate due to capital increase of other shareholders to the associate), the Group reclassifies to profit or loss the proportion of the gain or loss that had previously been recognized in other comprehensive income relating to that reduction in ownership interests if that gain or loss would have been reclassified to profit or loss on the disposal of the related assets or liabilities.

Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment test of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

Revenue recognition

The Group is principally engaged in the R&D, production and sales of refrigeration and air-conditioning product components and automotive components, which are widely used in the refrigeration and air-conditioning product market and the automotive market, including both NEVs and traditional fuel vehicles.

The Group recognizes revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i. e., when control of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer.

If control of the goods and services transfers over time, revenue is recognized over the period of the contract by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of that performance obligation. Otherwise, revenue is recognized at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the goods and services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognized will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

If a customer pays consideration or the Company has a right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional, before the Company transfers a good or service to the customer, the Company presents the contract liability when the payment is made. A contract liability is the Company's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Company has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer.

Revenue from domestic sales of products shall be recognized based on the sales contracts, settlement vouchers and other documents upon completion of product delivery and the buyer's confirmation for the acceptance of the products. Upon confirming the acceptance, the buyer has the right to sell the products at its discretion and takes the risks of any price fluctuation and obsolescence and loss of the products.

Revenue from oversea sales of products shall be recognized based on the sales contracts, customs declaration form, bill of lading, and other documents upon completion of customs declaration or shipping out of the port and arriving to the named port or place of destination. Upon the completion of customs declaration or arrival to the named port or place of destination, the buyer has the right to sell the products at its discretion and takes the risks of any price fluctuation and obsolescence and loss of the products.

Revenue from metal scrap is recognized after weighing and picking up the materials and obtaining the receipt certificate.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recognized at the rates of exchanges prevailing on the dates of the transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. RMB) using exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuate significantly during that period, in which case the exchange rates at the date of transactions are used. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of "Other reserves" (attributed to non-controlling interests as appropriate).

On the disposal of a foreign operation (that is, a disposal of the Group's entire interest in a foreign operation, or a disposal involving loss of control over a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation, or a partial disposal of an interest in a joint arrangement or an associate that includes a foreign operation of which the retained interest becomes a financial asset), all of the exchange differences accumulated in equity in respect of that operation attributable to the owners of the Company are reclassified to profit or loss.

In addition, in relation to a partial disposal of a subsidiary that does not result in the Group losing control over the subsidiary, the proportionate share of accumulated exchange differences are re-attributed to non-controlling interests and are not recognized in profit or loss. For all other partial disposals (i.e. partial disposals of associates or joint arrangements that do not result in the Group losing significant influence or joint control), the proportionate share of the accumulated exchange differences is reclassified to profit or loss.

Borrowing costs

All borrowing costs are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (continued)

Government grant

Government grants are not recognized until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants are recognized in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Group recognizes as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Specifically, government grants whose primary condition is that the Group should purchase, construct or otherwise acquire non-current assets are recognized as deferred income in the consolidated statement of financial position and transferred to profit or loss on a systematic and rational basis over the useful lives of the related assets.

Government grants related to income that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable. Such grants are presented under "Other income".

Employee Benefits

(i) Short-Term Obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and accumulating sick leave that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognized in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the statement of financial position.

(ii) Housing funds, medical insurances and other social insurances

Employees of the Group in the PRC are entitled to participate in various government-supervised housing funds, medical insurance and other employee social insurance plan. The Group contributes on a monthly basis to these funds based on certain percentages of the salaries of the employees, subject to certain ceiling. The Group's liability in respect of these funds is limited to the contributions payable in each year. Contributions to the housing funds, medical insurances and other social insurances are expensed as incurred.

(iii) Post-employment benefits

The Group classifies post-employment benefit plans as either defined contribution plans or defined benefit plans. Defined contribution plans are post-employment benefit plans under which the Group pays fixed contributions into a separate fund and will have no obligation to pay further contributions; and defined benefit plans are post-employment benefit plans other than defined contribution plans. During the reporting period, the Group's defined contribution plans mainly include basic pensions and unemployment insurance, while the defined benefit plans are certain overseas subsidiaries provide supplemental retirement benefits beyond the national regulatory insurance system.

(iv) Basic pensions

The Group's employees participate in the basic pension plan set up and administered by local authorities of Ministry of Human Resource and Social Security. Monthly payments of premiums on the basic pensions are calculated according to prescribed bases and percentage by the relevant local authorities. When employees retire, the relevant local authorities are obliged to pay the basic pensions to them. The amounts based on the above calculations are recognized as liabilities in the accounting period in which the service has been rendered by the employees, with a corresponding charge to the profit or loss for the current period or the cost of relevant assets.

(v) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated by the Group before the normal retirement date, or whenever an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Group recognizes termination benefits at the earlier of the following dates: (a) when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits; and (b) when the entity recognizes costs for a restructuring that is within the scope of IAS 37 and involves the payment of termination benefits.

Share-based payments

Share-based payments can be distinguished into equity-settled share-based payments and cash-settled share-based payments. Equity-settled share-based payments are transactions of the Group settled through the payment of shares or other equity instruments in consideration for receiving services.

Equity-settled share-based payments made in exchange for services rendered by employees are measured at the fair value of equity instruments granted to employees. Instruments which are vested immediately upon the grant are charged to relevant costs or expenses at the fair value on the date of grant and the capital reserve is credited accordingly. Instruments of which vesting is conditional upon completion of services or fulfillment of performance conditions are measured by recognizing services rendered during the period in relevant costs or expenses and crediting the capital reserve accordingly at the fair value on the date of grant according to the best estimates conducted by the Group at each date of the end of the reporting period during the pending period. For details see Note 34.

No expense is recognized for awards that do not ultimately vest due to non-fulfillment of non-market conditions and/or vesting conditions. For the market or non-vesting condition under the share-based payments agreement, it should be treated as vesting irrespective of whether or not the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied, provided that other performance condition and/or vesting conditions are satisfied.

Where the terms of an equity-settled share-based payment are modified, as a minimum, services obtained are recognized as if the terms had not been modified. In addition, an expense is recognized for any modification which increases the total fair value of the instrument granted or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification.

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of current and deferred income tax expense.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit before income tax because of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognized on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognized for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognized if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit and at the time of the transaction does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognized if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments and interests are only recognized to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilize the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realized, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

For the purposes of measuring deferred tax for leasing transactions in which the Group recognizes the right-of-use assets and the related lease liabilities, the Group first determines whether the tax deductions are attributable to the right-of-use assets or the lease liabilities.

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies IAS 12 Income Taxes requirements to right-of-use assets and lease liabilities separately. Temporary differences on initial recognition of the relevant right-of-use assets and lease liabilities are not recognized due to application of the initial recognition exemption. Temporary differences arising from subsequent revision to the carrying amounts of right-of-use assets and lease liabilities, resulting from remeasurement of lease liabilities and lease modification, that are not subject to initial recognition exemption are recognized on the date of remeasurement or modification.

Current and deferred tax are recognized in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively. Where current tax or deferred tax arises from the initial accounting for a business combination, the tax effect is included in the accounting for the business combination.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are tangible assets that are held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes (other than freehold lands and construction in progress as described below). Property, plant and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Freehold lands are not depreciated and are measured at cost less subsequent accumulated impairment losses.

Buildings in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognized impairment loss. Costs include any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management, including costs of testing whether the related assets is functioning properly and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalized in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Sale proceeds of items that are produced while bringing an item of property, plant and equipment to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management (such as samples produced when testing whether the asset is functioning properly), and the related costs of producing those items are recognized in the profit or loss. The cost of those items is measured in accordance with the measurement requirements of IAS 2. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

When the Group makes payments for ownership interests of properties which includes both leasehold land and building elements, the entire consideration is allocated between the leasehold land and the building elements in proportion to the relative fair values at initial recognition. To the extent the allocation of the relevant payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land is presented as "right-of-use assets" in the consolidated statement of financial position. When the consideration cannot be allocated reliably between non-lease building element and undivided interest in the underlying leasehold land, the entire properties are classified as property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation is recognized so as to write off the cost of assets other than freehold land and construction-in-progress less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognized in profit or loss.

Investment properties

Investment properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation (including properties under construction for such purposes). Investment properties include land held for undetermined future use, which is regarded as held for capital appreciation purpose.

Investment properties are initially measured at cost, including any directly attributable expenditure. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is recognized so as to write-off the cost of investment properties over their estimated useful lives and after taking into account of their estimate residual value, using the straight-line method.

An investment property is derecognized upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from its disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the property (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in profit or loss in the period in which the property is derecognized.

Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at costs less accumulated amortization and any accumulated impairment losses. Amortization for intangible assets with finite useful lives is recognized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortization method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

An intangible asset is derecognized on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains and losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, are recognized in profit or loss when the asset is derecognized.

Internally-generated intangible assets – research and development expenditure

Expenditure on research activities is recognized as an expense in the period in which it is incurred.

An internally-generated intangible asset arising from development activities (or from the development phase of an internal project) is recognized if, and only if, all of the following have been demonstrated:

- the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale;
- the intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it;
- the ability to use or sell the intangible asset;
- how the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits;
- the availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset; and
- the ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development.

The amount initially recognized for internally-generated intangible asset is the sum of the expenditure incurred from the date when the intangible asset first meets the recognition criteria listed above. Where no internally-generated intangible asset can be recognized, development expenditure is recognized in profit or loss in the period in which it is incurred.

Subsequent to initial recognition, internally-generated intangible assets are reported at cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses (if any), on the same basis as intangible assets that are acquired separately.

Other development expenditures that do not meet these criteria are recognized as an expense as incurred. Development costs previously recognized as an expense are not recognized as an asset in a subsequent period.

Leases

The Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under IFRS 16 at inception of the contract. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed. As a practical expedient, leases with similar characteristics are accounted on a portfolio basis when the Group reasonably expects that the effects on the consolidated financial statements would not differ materially from individual leases within the portfolio.

The Group as a Lessee

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. It also applies the recognition exemption for lease of low-value assets. Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Right-of-use assets

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under IFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

Lease Liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognizes and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases of the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that are based on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The Group as a lessor

Classification and measurement of leases

Leases for which the Group is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Rental income from operating leases is recognized in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset, and such costs are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits received are accounted for under IFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments from lessees.

Impairment on property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, and intangible assets other than goodwill

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, intangible assets with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that these assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the relevant asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any).

The recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, and intangible assets are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount individually, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, corporate assets are allocated to the relevant cash-generating unit when a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be established, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be established. The recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units to which the corporate asset belongs, and is compared with the carrying amount of the relevant cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Impairment on property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, and intangible assets other than goodwill (continued)

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset (or a cash-generating unit) for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a cash-generating unit, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of cash-generating units, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of cash-generating units, with the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of cash-generating units. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of cash-generating units. An impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents presented on the consolidated statement of financial position include:

- (a) cash, which comprises of cash on hand and demand deposits, excluding bank balances that are subject to regulatory restrictions that result in such balances no longer meeting the definition of cash; and
- (b) cash equivalents, which comprises of short-term (generally with original maturity of three months or less), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash equivalents are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment or other purposes.

For the purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cash equivalents as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management. Such overdrafts are presented as short-term borrowings in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Inventories

Raw materials, work in progress and finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Costs of inventories are determined on the month-end weighted average method. Cost comprises direct materials, direct labor and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle that obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognized as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (continued)

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with IFRS 15. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognized immediately in profit or loss.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortized cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income and interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts and payments (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial asset or financial liability, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognized and derecognized on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established generally by regulation or convention in the market place concerned.

All recognized financial assets are measured subsequently in their entirety at either amortized cost or fair value, depending on the classification of the financial assets.

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortized cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows; and
- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at FVTPL, except that at initial recognition of a financial asset the Group may irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in fair value of an equity investment in other comprehensive income if that equity investment is neither held for trading nor contingent consideration recognized by an acquirer in a business combination to which IFRS 3 Business Combinations applies.

A financial asset is held for trading if:

- it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is a part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative, except for a derivative that is a designated and effective hedging instrument.

In addition, the Group may irrevocably designate a financial asset that are required to be measured at the amortized cost or FVTOCI as measured at FVTPL if doing so eliminates or significantly reduces an accounting mismatch.

(i) Amortized cost and interest income

Interest income is recognized using the effective interest method for debt instruments measured subsequently at amortized cost. Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit impaired (see below). For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognized by applying the effective interest rate to the amortized cost of the financial asset from the next reporting period. If the credit risk on the credit-impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognized by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset from the beginning of the reporting period following the determination that the asset is no longer credit-impaired.

(ii) Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for being measured at amortized cost or FVTOCI or designated as FVTOCI are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses recognized in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognized in profit or loss excludes any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset and is included in the "Other losses, net" line item.

Impairment of financial assets subject to impairment assessment under IFRS 9

The Group performs impairment assessment under ECL model on financial assets (including trade and notes receivables, other receivables, term deposits and restricted cash, and cash and cash equivalents) which are subject to impairment assessment under IFRS 9. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL ("12m ECL") represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessments are done based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of past events and current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future economic conditions.

The Group always recognizes lifetime ECL for trade receivables. The Group always recognizes lifetime ECL for trade receivables without significant financing component.

For all other instruments, the Group measures the loss allowance equal to 12m ECL, unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, in which case the Group recognizes lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognized is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

(i) Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort. Forward-looking information considered includes the future prospects of the industries in which the Group's debtors operate, obtained from economic expert reports, financial analysts, governmental bodies, relevant think-tanks and other similar organizations, as well as consideration of various external sources of actual and forecast economic information that relate to the Group's core operations.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- significant deterioration in external market indicators of credit risk, e.g. a significant increase in the credit spread, the credit default swap prices for the debtor;
- existing or forecast adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor;
- an actual or expected significant adverse change in the regulatory, economic, or technological environment of the debtor that results in a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

(ii) Definition of default

For internal credit risk management, the Group considers an event of default occurs when information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 1 year past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

(iii) Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of that financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- (a) significant financial difficulty of the issuer or the borrower;
- (b) a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- (c) the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider;
- (d) it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganization; or
- (e) the disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties

(iv) Write-off policy

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, for example, when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. Any subsequent recoveries are recognized in profit or loss.

(v) Measurement and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data and forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights. The Group uses a practical expedient in estimating ECL on trade receivables using a provision matrix taking into consideration historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and forward-looking information, including time value of money where appropriate, that is available without undue cost or effort.

Generally, the ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition.

For collective assessment, the Group takes into consideration the following characteristics when formulating the grouping:

- Past-due status;
- Nature, size and industry of debtors; and
- External credit ratings where available.

The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure the constituents of each group continue to share similar credit risk characteristics.

Interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit-impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on amortized cost of the financial asset.

The Group recognizes an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments by adjusting their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

Foreign exchange gains and losses

The carrying amount of financial assets that are denominated in a foreign currency is determined in that foreign currency and translated at the spot rate at the end of each reporting period. Specifically:

- For financial assets measured at amortized cost that are not part of a designated hedging relationship, exchange differences are recognized in profit or loss in the "Other losses, net" line item as part of the net foreign exchange differences; and
- For financial assets measured at FVTPL that are not part of a designated hedging relationship, exchange differences are recognized in profit or loss in the "Other losses, net" line item as part of the gain/(loss) from changes in fair value of financial assets;

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognizes a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognizes its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognize the financial asset and also recognizes a collateralized borrowing for the proceeds received.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortized cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognized in profit or loss.

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (continued)

Financial liabilities and equity

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group are recognized at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Repurchase of the Company's own equity instruments is recognized and deducted directly in equity. No gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss on the purchase, sale, issue or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method or at FVTPL.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities are classified as at FVTPL when the financial liability is (i) contingent consideration of an acquirer in a business combination to which HKFRS 3 applies, (ii) held for trading or (iii) it is designated as at FVTPL.

A financial liability is held for trading if:

- it has been incurred principally for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term; or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that the Group manages together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit-taking; or
- it is a derivative, except for a derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument.

Financial liabilities at amortized cost

Financial liabilities including borrowings, trade and notes payables and lease liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost, using the effective interest method.

For financial liabilities that are denominated in a foreign currency and are measured at amortized cost at the end of each reporting period, the foreign exchange gains and losses are determined based on the amortized cost of the instruments. These foreign exchange gains and losses are recognized in the “Other losses, net” line item in profit or loss as part of net foreign exchange differences for financial liabilities that are not part of a designated hedging relationship.

The fair value of financial liabilities denominated in a foreign currency is determined in that foreign currency and translated at the spot rate at the end of the reporting period. For financial liabilities that are measured as at FVTPL, the foreign exchange component forms part of the fair value gains or losses and is recognized in profit or loss for financial liabilities that are not part of a designated hedging relationship.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognizes financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group’s obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognized and the consideration paid and payable is recognized in profit or loss.

Derivative financial instruments and hedging activities

Derivatives are initially recognized at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period. The accounting for subsequent changes in fair value depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, the nature of the item being hedged. The Group designates certain derivatives as either:

- hedges of the fair value of recognized assets or liabilities or a firm commitment (fair value hedges)
- hedges of a particular risk associated with the cash flows of recognized assets and liabilities and highly probable forecast transactions (cash flow hedges), or
- hedges of a net investment in a foreign operation (net investment hedges).

At the inception of the hedging, the Group documents the economic relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items, including whether changes in the cash flows of the hedging instruments are expected to offset changes in the cash flows of hedged items. The Group documents its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking its hedge transactions.

Derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting

Certain derivative instruments do not qualify for hedge accounting. Changes in the fair value of any derivative instrument that does not qualify for hedge accounting are recognized immediately in profit or loss and are included in “Other losses, net” line item.

5. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

(b) FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group's major financial instruments include financial assets measured at FVTPL, trade and notes receivables, other receivables and other non-current assets, term deposits and restricted cash, cash and cash equivalents, wealth management products measured at amortized cost, financial liabilities measured at FVTPL, trade and notes payables, accruals and other payables, lease liabilities and borrowings. Details of the financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments include market risk (currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk), credit risk, and liquidity risk. The policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management of the Group manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented in a timely and effective manner.

Market risk

(i) Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk arises when future commercial transactions or recognized assets and liabilities are denominated in a currency that is not the respective functional currency of the Group's subsidiaries. The functional currencies of the subsidiaries outside the PRC are mainly United States Dollar ("USD") and Euro ("EUR") whereas functional currency of the subsidiaries operate in the PRC is RMB. The Group manages its foreign exchange risk by performing regular reviews of the Group's net foreign exchange exposures and tries to minimize these exposures through natural hedges, wherever possible.

As at December 31, 2025, the Group's major financial assets/liabilities exposed to foreign exchange risk, representing those financial assets/liabilities denominated in USD and EUR and included in a group entity with different functional currency:

Financial assets denominated in:
USD	8,054,293	2,756,203
EUR	350,824	562,268
Others	335,910	368,463
Financial liabilities denominated in:
USD	644,550	757,069
EUR	860,871	831,178
Others	239,497	202,581

5. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

As shown in the table above, the Group is primarily exposed to changes in USD and EUR exchange rates. The sensitivity of profit or loss to changes in the exchange rates arises mainly from USD and EUR denominated financial instruments is as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
USD/RMB exchange rate-
Increase 5%	370,487	99,957
Decrease 5%	(370,487)	(99,957)
EUR/RMB exchange rate-
Increase 5%	(25,502)	(13,446)
Decrease 5%	25,502	13,446

Other foreign currencies of changes have no significant impact on foreign exchange risk.

(ii) Interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk primarily arises from bank balances and interest-bearing borrowings. Bank balances carried at variable rates and borrowings issued at floating rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. Borrowings issued at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk. The Group determines the proportion of borrowings issued at floating rates and fixed rates based on the market environment.

As at December 31, 2025, total borrowings of the Group bearing floating rates amounted to approximately RMB2,382,234,000 (2024: RMB2,048,388,000).

If interest rate had been 50 basis points higher or lower with all other variables held constant, the profit before tax would increase/decrease approximately by RMB50,525,000 (2024: RMB6,976,000) for the year ended December 31, 2025.

Considering the repricing or maturity date, the fair value interest rate risk arises from borrowings and bank balances carried at fixed rates is not significant for the Group.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

5. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

(iii) Other price risk

The Group is exposed to price risk on financial instruments in respect of investment in equity securities and derivative financial instruments, including commodity future contracts and exchange forward contracts, measured at FVTPL.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analyses have been determined based on the exposure to price risk at the reporting date. For sensitivity analysis of financial instruments at FVTPL, the sensitivity rate is increased to 5% in current year as a result of the volatile financial market.

If the prices of the respective financial instruments had been 5% (2024: 5%) higher/lower, the profit for the year ended December 31, 2025 would increase/decrease by RMB20,534,000 (2024: decrease/increase by RMB3,672,000) as a result of fair value change on the financial instruments at FVTPL.

Credit risk and impairment assessment

Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, term deposits and restricted cash, as well as trade and notes receivables, other receivables and other non-current assets. The carrying amount of each class of the above financial assets represents the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to the corresponding class of financial assets.

(a) Risk management

To manage this risk, cash and cash equivalents as well as term deposits and restricted cash are mainly placed with state-owned or reputable financial institutions which are all high-credit-quality financial institutions.

To manage risk from trade and notes receivables as well as other receivables, the Group has policies in place to ensure that credit terms are made to counterparties with an appropriate credit history and the management performs ongoing credit evaluations of the counterparties. It also has continuous monitoring procedures to ensure the collection of the receivables as scheduled and follow up action is taken to recover overdue debts, if any.

(b) Impairment of financial assets

The Group has three types of financial assets that are subject to the expected credit loss model:

- Cash and cash equivalents, term deposits and restricted cash;
- Trade and notes receivables; and
- Other receivables and other non-current assets.

Credit risk of cash and cash equivalents, term deposits and restricted cash

Cash and cash equivalents, term deposits and restricted cash are mainly placed with reputable Chinese and international financial institutions. There has been no recent history of default in relation to these financial institutions. The expected credit loss was immaterial as at December 31, 2025.

Credit risk of trade and notes receivables

(i) Trade receivables

The Group applies the IFRS 9 simplified approach to measure expected credit loss which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance for all trade receivables.

To measure ECL, trade receivables have been grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and aging. The Group also made individual assessment on the recoverability of its trade receivables for certain customers based on historical settlement record.

The historical loss rates are calculated based on the historical payment profiles of sales and the corresponding historical incurred credit losses. The historical loss rates are adjusted to reflect the forward-looking information on macroeconomic factors as well as the credit rating analysis of respective customers and other external data which have impacts to the ability of the customers to settle the receivables. The Group has identified the Gross Domestic Product ("GDP") of the countries in which it sells its goods to be the most relevant factors, and accordingly adjusts the historical loss rates based on expected changes in these factors.

Trade receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Indicators that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery include the failure of a debtor to engage in a repayment plan with the Group and other indicators of severe financial difficulties.

On that basis, the loss allowance as at December 31, 2025 was determined as follows for trade receivables:

(ii) Notes receivables

The Group measured provisions for impairment of notes receivables based on the lifetime ECL and assessed that there was no significant credit risk associated with its bank acceptance notes as the Group did not expect that there would be any significant losses from non-performance by these reputable banks. For the commercial acceptance notes and finance company acceptance notes, which are usually settled within 6 months to 1 year from the respective issuance date, the Group provided the expected credit loss as at December 31, 2025 amounting to RMB16,859,000 (2024: RMB8,620,000).

Movements on the provision of ECL for notes receivables at amortized cost are as follows:

Credit risk of other receivables and other non-current assets

Other receivables and other non-current assets subject to credit risks at the end of each of the periods are mainly comprised of custom and other deposits, tax refund receivables and others. The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of the assets and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each of the periods. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the assets as of the reporting date with the risk of default as of the date of initial recognition. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the debtor's ability to meet its obligations;
- external credit rating of the counterparty;
- actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the debtor; and
- significant changes in the expected performance and behavior of the debtor, including changes in the payment status of debtor.

Regardless of the analysis above, a significant increase in credit risk is presumed if a debtor is more than 365 days past due in making a contractual payment.

Liquidity risk

The Group intends to maintain sufficient cash and cash equivalents. Due to the dynamic nature of the underlying business, the policy of the Group is to regularly monitor the Group's liquidity risk and to maintain adequate liquid assets such as cash and cash equivalents and term deposits or to retain adequate financing arrangements to meet the Group's liquidity requirements.

The tables below analyze the Group's financial liabilities that will be settled into relevant maturity groupings based on the remaining period at each balance sheet date to their contractual maturity date. The amounts disclosed in the table are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not significant.

(c) Fair value estimation

Determination of fair value and the fair value hierarchy of financial instruments

This note provides information on how the Group determines the fair values of various financial assets and liabilities.

For financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorized into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

6. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The primary objectives of the Group's capital management are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximize shareholders' value.

The Group manages its capital structure in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. The Group is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for managing capital during the year ended December 31, 2025.

The Group monitors capital on the basis of the debt to asset ratio as at December 31, 2025 and 2024 are as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Total assets	49,406,131	36,354,749
Total liabilities	17,365,901	16,835,105
Debt to asset ratio	35.1%	46.3%

7. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's material accounting policies, which are described in Note 4, the directors of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and underlying assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

7. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (continued)

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

(a) Allowance for expected credit losses on receivables

The loss allowances for receivables are based on assumptions about the risk of default and expected loss rates. The Group uses judgments in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation. The historical loss rates are adjusted to reflect the forward-looking information on macroeconomic factors as well as the credit rating analysis of respective customers and other external data which have impacts on the ability of the customers to settle the receivables.

The Group takes into account different macroeconomic scenarios in considering forward-looking information in the PRC and overseas markets. The Group regularly monitors and reviews the key macroeconomic assumptions and parameters related to the calculation of expected credit losses. The Group has identified the Gross Domestic Product (“GDP”) of the countries in which it sells its goods to be the most relevant factor, and accordingly adjusts the historical loss rates based on expected changes in these factors.

(b) Estimated net realizable value of inventories

In accordance with the Group’s accounting policy, the Group estimates the net realizable value of inventories based on specific facts and circumstances. For different types of inventories, it requires the estimation on selling prices, costs of conversion, selling expenses and the related tax expense to calculate the net realizable amount of inventories. For inventories held for executed sales contracts, management estimates the net realizable amount based on the contracted price. For raw materials and work-in-progress, management has established a model to estimate the net realizable amount at which the inventories can be realizable in the normal course of business after considering the manufacturing cycles, production capacity and forecasts, estimated future conversion costs and selling prices. Management also takes into account the price or cost fluctuations and other related matters occurring after the end of the year which reflect conditions that existed at the end of each year.

It is reasonably possible that if there is a significant change in circumstances including the Group’s business and the external environment, outcomes would be significantly affected.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(c) Property, plant and equipment and intangible assets – estimated useful lives and residual values

The Group determines the estimated useful lives and residual values (if applicable) and consequently the related depreciation/amortization charges for its property, plant and equipment and intangible assets (excluding freehold land and goodwill). These estimates are based on the historical experience, anticipated change of technology, market condition and the actual consumptions of related assets. The depreciation/amortization charge will increase when useful lives are less than previously estimated. In addition, technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold will be written off or written down.

Actual economic lives may differ from estimated useful lives and actual residual values may differ from estimated residual values. Periodic review could result in change in useful lives and residual values and therefore change in depreciation/amortization expense in future periods.

(d) Income tax

The Group estimates its income tax provision and deferred taxation in accordance with the prevailing tax rules and regulations, taking into account any special approvals obtained from the relevant tax authorities and any preferential tax treatment to which it is entitled in each location or jurisdiction in which the Group operates. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognizes liabilities for anticipated tax audit issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, the differences will have an impact on the income tax and deferred tax provisions in the period in which the determination is made.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for unused tax losses and deductible temporary differences, such as the provision for impairment of receivables, inventories and property, plant and equipment and accruals of expenses not yet deductible for tax purposes, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which the unused tax losses and the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Significant estimation is required in determining the recoverability of deferred tax assets.

In the event that future tax rules and regulations or related circumstances change, adjustments to current and deferred taxation may be necessary which would have an impact on the Group's results or financial position.

8. OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION AND REVENUE

(a) Description of segments and principal activities

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"). The executive directors, who have been identified as being the CODM, consist of the chief executive officer, the chief financial officer and the managers for each business unit. The CODM assesses the financial performance and position of the Group and makes strategic decisions. The CODM also reviews the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance, allocate resources, and determine the operating segments based on these reports.

As at December 31, 2025, the CODM has identified the following reportable segments from a product perspective:

- Refrigeration and air-conditioning product components business; and
- Automotive components business

(b) Segment information

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the CODM assesses the performance of the operating segments mainly based on segment revenue and gross profit of each operating segment. The selling and marketing expenses, general and administrative expenses and research and development expenses are common costs incurred for these operating segments as a whole and therefore, they are not included in the measure of the segments' performance which is used by the CODM as a basis for the purpose of resource allocation and assessment of segment performance. Net reversal of impairment losses/(net impairment losses) on financial assets, other income, other losses, net, finance costs, net and income tax expenses are also not allocated to individual operating segments.

Revenue from major customers

The remaining revenue derived from other single external customers were less than 10% of the Group's total revenue for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

(d) Contract liabilities

During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the additions to the contract liabilities were primarily due to cash collections in advance of fulfilling performance obligations, while the reductions to the contract liabilities were primarily due to the recognition of revenues upon fulfilment of performance obligations.

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Contract liabilities	76,167	49,462

As at 1 January 2024, the contract liabilities amounted to RMB51,789,000.

The following table shows the amount of revenue, which was included in the contract liabilities at the beginning of the year, recognized during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 relates to carried-forward contract liabilities:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Revenue recognized that was included in the beginning balance	49,462	51,789

Management expects that the unsatisfied obligation of RMB76,167,000 and RMB49,462,000 as at December 31, 2025 and 2024, will be recognized as revenue within the next twelve months.

14. INCOME TAX EXPENSES

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Current income tax	721,071	579,676
Under-provision from prior year	31,457	8,763
Deferred income tax (Note 22)	(15,461)	(8,478)
	737,067	579,961

The Group is subject to income tax on an entity basis on profits arising in or derived from the jurisdictions in which members of the Group are domiciled and operate.

(a) PRC corporate income tax

During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, certain subsidiaries of the Group have obtained High and New Technology Enterprises certification ("HNTE") and hence they are entitled to a preferential corporate income tax rate of 15% for a valid period of 3 years. The entitlement of HNTE is renewable subject to conditions and assessment by tax authorities. Other subsidiaries established and operated in the PRC are subject to the PRC corporate income tax at the rate of 25%.

According to the relevant laws and regulations promulgated by the State Taxation Administration of the PRC, enterprises engaging in research and development activities are entitled to claim 175% from 2018 onwards (subsequently raised to 200% from 2022 onwards without a specified expiry date) of their research and development expenses incurred as tax deductible expenses when determining their assessable profits for that year (the "Super Deduction for research and development").

(b) US corporate income tax

The applicable income tax rate of United States where the subsidiaries of the Group having significant operations for the year ended December 31, 2025 is 0%-10% and 21% (2024: 0%-10% and 21%), which is a blended state and federal rate respectively.

(c) Corporate income tax in other jurisdictions

The income tax rates of the subsidiaries from other jurisdictions, including Germany, Singapore, Mexico and Japan, had been calculated on the estimated assessable profit for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 at the respective rates ranged from 17% to 33% prevailing in the relevant jurisdictions.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

14. INCOME TAX EXPENSES (continued)

(d) OECD pillar two model rules

The Group is within the scope of the Global Anti-Base Erosion (GloBE) model rules (hereinafter referred to as “the Pillar Two model rules”). The Group has temporarily exempted the recognition and disclosure of deferred tax assets and liabilities arising from Pillar Two income taxes, and will account for the Pillar Two income taxes as current tax when incurred. As at December 31, 2025, Pillar Two legislation has been enacted or substantively enacted in 13 jurisdictions where the Group operates, and has taken effect for the 2025 financial year.

The Group has evaluated its potential exposure based on the financial performance information. According to the assessment result, the Group expects to benefit from the transitional Country-by-Country Reporting (CbCR) safe harbour in the above 13 jurisdictions where Pillar Two legislation has been enacted, with no immaterial top-up tax impact. The Group will continue to monitor relevant legislative developments in its operating jurisdictions to evaluate the potential future impact on its consolidated financial statements.

The income tax on the Group’s profit before income tax differs from the theoretical amount that would arise using the enacted tax rate applicable to profits of the subsidiaries as follows:

Profit before income tax	4,843,757	3,691,687
Income tax calculated at the domestic rates applicable to profits in the country concerned	1,210,939	1,029,827

18. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT (continued)

Notes:

- (a) As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, the management of the Group identified impairment indicators (e.g. obsolescence) of certain machinery and office equipment and carried out an impairment review on these assets. The recoverable amounts were determined by the higher of fair value less cost of disposal and its value-in-use. The valuation models used to estimate the fair values of certain assets were with reference to recent prices of similar assets of similar conditions when such prices could be reliably obtained, where applicable. As a result of the assessment, the Group provided impairment losses for machinery and equipment, office equipment and construction in progress amounting to RMB64,387,000 (2024: 20,849,000), nil (2024: RMB33,000) and RMB8,022,000 (2024: nil) respectively for the year ended December 31, 2025.
- (b) Except for freehold lands (with indefinite useful life) and construction in progress, which are not depreciated, property, plant, and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives on the following bases:

Buildings	Over the shorter of the lease term, or 20-30 years
Machinery and equipment	5-12 years
Motor vehicles	5-8 years
Office equipment	5-8 years
Leasehold improvements	Over the shorter of the lease term, or their useful life

- (c) Depreciation of the Group's property, plant and equipment has been recognized as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Cost of revenue	899,705	666,906
Selling and marketing expenses	424	771
General and administrative expenses	125,526	128,951
Research and development expenses	61,393	52,038
	1,087,048	848,666

- (d) The Group has no property, plant and equipment pledged as security for loans or other liabilities as at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Research and development expenses	2,484	11,853

(a) Impairment tests for goodwill

Goodwill is not subject to amortization and is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. An impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets.

As at December 31, 2024, goodwill was fully impaired. The carrying amount of goodwill allocated to the cash generating units or group of cash generating units ("CGU" or "CGUs") for the year ended December 31, 2024 were as follows:

	Opening RMB'000	Addition RMB'000	Impairment RMB'000	Closing RMB'000
Year ended December 31, 2024
Board Replacement CGU ("BRT CGU") (i)	6,785	–	(6,785)	–

(i) BRT CGU

The goodwill of BRT CGU was generated from business combination of Zhejiang Sanhua Board Replacement Technology Co., Ltd. (浙江三花板換科技有限公司) ("Board Replacement"). Management regards Board Replacement as a separate CGU and reviews the business performance and monitors the goodwill on a CGU basis.

As at December 31, 2024, as the performance of BRT CGU was worse than expected, according to the management's estimation of the recoverable amount of Board Replacement with the assistance of an independent valuer, which was calculated based on its value-in-use of BRT CGU, an impairment of RMB6,785,000 was recognized, resulting in a reduction in the carrying amount of goodwill of Board Replacement to nil.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

20. INTANGIBLE ASSETS (continued)

(a) Impairment tests for goodwill (continued)

The key assumptions used by management for VIU calculation for the impairment test of Board Replacement goodwill as at December 31, 2024, included:

	2024
Revenue annual growth rates	36.17%
Operating profit margin	0.41%-10.00%
Perpetual annual growth rates	0.00%
Pre-tax discount rates	10.99%

The expected revenue annual growth rates increased significantly mainly due to the business expansion exceeded the expectation. Meanwhile, the operating profit margin decreased significantly due to the increased expenditure on research and development activities.

Management had determined the values assigned to each of the above key assumptions as follows:

Assumption	Approach used to determine values
Revenue annual growth rates	Revenue annual growth rate was estimated over the five-year forecast period. The management of the Group used a five-year period as the projection period for the cash flow forecast, which was in line with the period length used in the corresponding strategic planning and long-term budgeting purpose.
Operating profit margin	Based on past performance and management's expectations for the future.
Perpetual annual growth rates	This was the weighted average growth rate used to extrapolate cash flows beyond the forecast period. The rates were determined after making reference to long term inflation rate of the countries in which they operate. The perpetual annual growth rates remained stable which was due to the fact that the long-term inflation rates of the relevant countries were relatively stable during the years ended.
Pre-tax discount rates	Estimated by using the weighted average cost of capital ("WACC") method. The WACC was calculated by referring to public market data including risk free rate, market return, beta of comparable public companies etc. and the specific risk of the business.

Separately acquired licensed technologies are shown at historical cost. They have finite useful lives and are subsequently carried at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment losses.

(ii) Computer software

Acquired computer software licenses are capitalized on the basis of the costs incurred to acquire the specific software.

The Group amortizes intangible assets with a finite useful life using the straight-line method over the following periods:

Intellectual properties	1-4 years
Computer software	5-10 years

Notes:

- (a) At the end of the reporting period, the amount represents government grants received in relation to the acquisition of property, plant and equipment and R&D activities conducted by the Group. The portion related to assets has been recognised as deferred income. The deferred income is amortized to other income on a systematic basis over the useful lives of the relevant assets, which range from 8 to 30 years.

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group recognized income of RMB269,453,000 (2024: RMB205,283,000), of which RMB167,678,000 (2024: RMB156,546,000) was received and recognized in "Other income" (Note 9).

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended December 31, 2025

31. OTHER CURRENT AND NON-CURRENT LIABILITIES (continued)

- (b) Long-term salaries, wages and bonuses
Long-term salaries, wages and bonuses mainly consist of pension obligations and termination obligations which are measured as defined benefit plans as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Pension obligations (i)	10,105	10,069
Clearance (ii)	12,512	13,652
Anniversary benefits (ii)	2,946	3,131
Other long-term benefits to employees (iii)	7,074	7,091
	32,637	33,943

- (i) Pension obligations
A subsidiary of the Group, AWECO Appliance Systems GmbH & Co. KG, located in Germany, established a performance-oriented pension plan for the family members of the former owners (refer to as "Old Shareholders"). The performance-based pension plan defines the amount that the Old Shareholders receive when they retire and the entitlement of the Old Shareholders to monthly pension payments is defined. The performance-oriented pension plan was assigned a value that an independent actuary expert has calculated using the business value method. A corresponding update was made on the balance sheet date.

The actuarial assumptions used to determine the present value of pension obligations are as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Discount rate (%)	3.92%	3.29%
Rate of pension increase (%)	0.00%	0.00%

The pension increases of 0.0% is justified by the fact that there are no legal or contractual obligations to increase pensions after the persons in consideration are no longer employees or shareholders. No adjustments were made in all previous periods either.

The movement of the pension obligations are as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
At the beginning of the year	10,069	11,058
Net interest	337	322
Remeasurement gains	(524)	(178)
Benefits payments	(691)	(677)
Currency translation differences	914	(456)
At the end of the year	10,105	10,069

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the year ended December 31, 2025

(i) Pension obligations (continued)

The sensitivity of the pension obligations to changes in the principal assumptions is as below:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Discount rate
– Increased by 0.50%	9,658	9,634
– Decreased by 0.50%	10,599	10,604
Rate of pension increase
– Increased by 0.50%	10,593	10,596
– Decreased by 0.50%	10,054	10,065

(ii) Clearance and anniversary benefits

In Austria, the Group grants its employees, in accordance with the local laws, benefits after termination of the employment relationship (clearances) and other long-term benefits depending on the years of service (anniversaries benefits).

The calculation of performance-related obligations for clearances and anniversaries benefits is carried out by an independent actuary. The performance-related commitments include the years of service as well as the expected salary developments and were determined using the entitlement present value method.

According to Austrian labor law, the settlements are one-off severance payments, which are paid at the termination of the employment relationship or in the event of retirement. As in the previous year, the amount paid depends on the time of service and the salary. These provisions apply to employees who joined the Group before the end of 2002.

Due to changes in the law, a contribution-oriented pension plan is applicable to employees who joined after this date. In accordance with these provisions, the Group pays a contribution of 1.53% of the monthly salary including additional remuneration (e.g. bonuses) to a pension insurance after the employee's second month of service. The pension is paid by the pension insurance after reaching retirement age.

The actuarial assumptions used to calculate the clearances and anniversaries benefits are as follows:

Notes:

- (a) For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Group repurchased treasury shares amounting to approximately RMB303,256,000 (2024: RMB299,978,000).
- (b) For the year ended December 31, 2024, the Group granted 24,910,000 restricted shares to certain incentive participants under the share incentive scheme. The grant price was set at RMB11.75 per share, with a total fair value of RMB292,693,000 at grant date. Upon the grant, the Group transferred RMB284,970,000 from "share premium" and RMB577,663,000 in "treasury shares". In addition, a liability of RMB292,693,000 was recognized under "accruals and other payables" (Note 30) to reflect the repurchase obligation associated with the restricted shares. No cash consideration was received from the participants at grant date and the grant is accounted for as a share-based payment with a repurchase obligation.
- (c) The restricted shares granted under the share incentive schemes (Note 35) incorporate a dividend adjustment mechanism, under which the grant price is reduced by the amount of dividends declared during the vesting period. This ensures that grantees receive equivalent economic benefits to ordinary shareholders despite not receiving cash dividends before vesting. This adjustment entitles the holders to dividend benefits, with the grant price reduced by the dividends distributed.

35. SHARE INCENTIVE SCHEMES

Pursuant to the restricted share unit incentive scheme and share appreciation right incentive scheme approved at the interim shareholders' meeting on 25 May 2022 (the "2022 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme" and "2022 Share Appreciation Right Incentive Scheme"), the Company granted 17,585,000 restricted shares to 1,366 incentive participants and 485,000 shares appreciation rights to 41 incentive participants. The grant date was 31 May 2022, and the granted price was RMB10.00 per share. The schemes will be valid from the date of grant until the date of all shares are released from restricted/exercised or repurchased and cancelled, with a maximum period of 48 months. The shares are vested based on the service conditions and performance conditions.

Pursuant to the restricted share unit incentive scheme and share appreciation right incentive scheme approved at the interim shareholders' meeting on 6 May 2024 (the "2024 Restricted Share Incentive Scheme" and "2024 Share Appreciation Right Incentive Scheme"), the Company granted 24,910,000 restricted shares to 1,933 incentive participants and 560,000 share appreciation rights to 47 incentive participants. The grant date was 13 May 2024, and the granted price was RMB11.75 per share. The schemes will be valid from the date of grant until the date of all shares are released from restricted/exercised or repurchased and cancelled, with a maximum period of 48 months. The shares are vested based on service conditions and performance conditions.

The restricted shares and shares appreciation rights shall be subject to different vesting service periods from the vesting commencement date: i) 30% of the granted shares and rights are vested on each anniversary from the vesting commencement date; ii) 30% of the granted share and right are vested on the second anniversary from the vesting commencement date; and iii) 40% of granted shares and rights are vested on the third anniversary from the vesting commencement date.

The exercise price of the restricted shares and share appreciation rights will be adjusted for dividend distributions of the Company in accordance with the terms of the schemes.

As of December 31, 2025, the numbers of the outstanding restricted shares and share appreciation rights granted to the Group's incentive participants are 16,807,000 and 322,000 (2024: 31,416,000 and 730,000) respectively. The movements of the number of the restricted shares and share appreciation rights are as follows:

	2025 '000	2024 '000
At the beginning of the year	32,146	12,452
Granted	–	25,470
Vested	(14,194)	(5,272)
Lapsed	(823)	(504)
At the end of the year	17,129	32,146

The fair value of the restricted shares was determined on the basis of the single-day closing price of the circulating shares on the date when the equity instruments are granted, less the exercise price. The fair value of the share appreciation rights was determined on the basis of the closing price at each balance sheet date, less the exercise price.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

35. SHARE INCENTIVE SCHEMES (continued)

As at December 31, 2025, the weighted average remaining contractual life of restricted shares outstanding was 0.99 years (2024: 1.24 years) and 0.99 years (2024: 1.22 years) for share appreciation rights. As at December 31, 2025, the weighted average exercise price of share appreciation rights outstanding was RMB11.40 (2024: RMB11.10), with exercise price at RMB11.40 (2024: ranging from RMB9.30 to RMB11.65).

During the year ended December 31, 2025, no share appreciation rights were granted (2024: granted at weighted average exercise price of RMB11.75). The weighted average exercise price of share appreciation rights exercised at the date of exercise was RMB10.25 (2024: RMB9.65) and lapsed was RMB10.75 (2024: RMB9.65).
